About us

Unseen is a UK charity with its head office in Bristol. We provide safehouses and support in the community for survivors of trafficking and modern slavery and operate the UK wide Modern Slavery & Exploitation Helpline. We also work with individuals, communities, business, governments, other charities and statutory agencies to end slavery for good.

Our vision: A world without slavery. We aim to transform society's response so all can live in a world free from such abuse and exploitation.

Our mission: We're working to end modern slavery by empowering, equipping and influencing others to bring about positive and transformational change.

Purpose of the role

The Safehouse Caseworker will be based at our safehouse accommodations in South Gloucestershire (the female safehouse) and North Somerset (the male safehouse), and the primary purpose will be to provide survivors with high quality support and to oversee the day-to-day operation and maintenance of the safe houses.

Key responsibilities and tasks

Responsible for day-to-day health and safety of the accommodation provision in line with Unseen policy & contractual requirements.

1. Welcome survivors to the safehouse and complete relevant induction paperwork in line with expected timeframes.
2. Responsible for identifying property maintenance issues and facilitating routine and emergency repairs as required.
3. Responsible for required health and safety checks, ensuring these are completed and that accurate records are maintained.
4. Responsible for preparing rooms for new arrivals and when survivors leave.
