

Programme Manager –
Middlesbrough

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in this critical role for Turn2us. We are looking forward to hearing from people who share our deep commitment to supporting those who are facing financial shock in the UK. Your contribution will make a direct and tangible difference to people's lives, every day.

Since I started at Turn2us in March 2019, it has been a privilege to see the incredible work that Turn2us does. We support millions to change their lives for the better, every year. The level of organisational knowledge about our core business is extensive – we really know our stuff. And there is a very short distance between impulse and impact: the freedom to act in simple, pragmatic ways that are immediately helpful is a significant aspect of the rewards of working here.

Our overall ratio of investment to out turn is well above average. One good example is our Benefits Calculator, which costs around £350k per year to run. Used nearly 2.8m times in 2019/20, we believe that 232,000 claimants will have successfully secured an average income uplift of £5,320 if they continue to claim for a full year. That is a staggering £1.2 billion of previously unclaimed benefits going to where they were intended.

Of course, many of our activities are by their nature about people helping people, one individual or one family at a time – and we know that this work is amplified incredibly effectively by our strong partnerships with other charities and organisations working in local communities. A key priority for the future is to enable the organisation to understand how to do so, and devise a plan to maximise our impact with and for people and to tackle the system that fails so many of us.

Our culture is a very significant pull factor for people joining this organisation – how we are being, just as much as what we are doing. Our approach is infused with a sense of highly competent humility, facilitating and enabling colleagues, partners and crucially those for whom we exist to co-create solutions that work.

In the context of some important conversations taking place in our sector, I am unequivocal about our organisational commitment to Equity, Diversity & Inclusion, embedded in values and behaviours that enhance our working culture. An uncompromising personal commitment to working towards a fully diverse and inclusive working environment is essential for these roles, and comes ahead of other requirements.

The last year has been extremely challenging for people across the UK. The number of people in unpredictable employment, holding down several jobs to make ends meet, and the impact of Covid's lockdown has led to structural instability in many communities. The rapid rise in foodbank usage is a canary in the mine for fundamental problems ahead. So, working with partners, we have to grow our impact, and this recruitment is a major investment in the strength and capacity of our staff as we build a model that will take us confidently into the future.

Chief Executive Officer

About the collaboration

Buttle UK, Smallwood and Turn2Us are grant making organisations who believe no one in the UK should live in poverty. We are working together to look at the causes and impact of gendered poverty on women and their families in Middlesbrough.

We are seeking an energetic, organised and passionate Programme Manager who will work with us to take this programme to the next level. We want this project to be led and informed by the women affected by gendered poverty because we know it will help us have a greater impact and shift power.

As the Programme Manager, you will use co production, working with women and their families to develop solutions to gendered poverty. You will help build relationships with local partners and residents, shift power to women and their families affected by gendered poverty and test whether a co-produced & collaborative approach to grant-making can transform the lives of women & their children.

This role will be managed and hosted by the Local Programmes Team at Turn2us but you will work closely with staff from all three organisations. Our ideal candidate will be committed to shifting power to those closest to the problem of gendered poverty in Middlesbrough, have experience of running busy projects with a variety of stakeholders, of co production and knowledge of grant making.

This pack provides information about the skills we need for this role and how to apply. If you are committed to Equality, Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging, love to help organise projects and believe that the people who have experienced financial insecurity are the best people to end it – then we want to hear from you.

Polly Trenow,
Co Head of Local Programmes with Hala Sabri

Financial security goes beyond survival

At Turn2us, we see every day how the right support at the right time can transform lives. It can mean having enough money to put food on the table and pay the bills, and the ability to thrive, not just survive. We all need financial security.

Financial security involves having enough money to comfortably cover your monthly expenses, save for your future and, most crucially, recover from financial shocks.

We want to see a society where everyone has the right to financial security. Our ambition to bring about this change forms the backbone of our strategy.

But it's not enough for Turn2us to demand change from a society and economic system at the root of so much financial insecurity for so many of us. We also need to model the change we and many other partners know is needed.

Our previous strategy, which focused on the financial shocks caused by life-changing events, enabled us to build strong foundations for our evolving ambition. We strengthened our safeguarding and sharpened our focus on equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB).

We increased the reach and outcomes of our products and services by co-producing them with people with in-depth experience of the problems we were trying to address.

Over the last three years we have listened to and worked alongside individuals and families who have steered us towards an emphasis on financial security – empowering people to thrive, not just survive.

The growing scale of suffering compels us to increase our focus on challenging an outdated, unfair economic system.

Whilst overhauling the current system will not be straightforward, there is a growing desire across civil society, the commercial sector, and parts of the state to work together to change the status quo so that more people can work together to overcome financial shocks and rebuild the strength and resilience of their communities.

We will join forces with a wide range of partners, facilitating (with others) a broad coalition for change.

Over the next five years we will take steps towards that goal of designing a fairer economy, working both with UK-wide decision-makers and the people and families at the centre of communities driving change.

At Turn2us, we're well-placed to broaden our reach, deepen our impact and help drive the necessary change.

Join us in building a better future for us all.

About Turn2us

Our vision

Everyone in the UK has financial security so that they can thrive.

Our purpose

We offer support to those of us facing financial shocks and together we challenge the systems and perceptions that cause financial insecurity.

Our values

Financial security for all

It's not acceptable to us that we live in an unjust society where a financial shock becoming a financial crisis is more likely for those already facing barriers to thriving.

Everyone should have access to appropriate rights, resources and support. We actively tackle prejudice and barriers to access.

We face into the causes of financial inequality, challenging the status quo, ourselves and others in doing so.

We believe this is urgent. We will not stand by as another generation grows up without adequate money and the resources to thrive.

Listen, learn and improve

To be effective, we need to deeply understand people's experiences, the financial challenges they face, what's important to them and how best we, and others, can provide support through a financial crisis or shock.

We are on a constant cycle of listening, learning and looking to improve. This gives us confidence in our direction. Listening attentively to people's lived experiences. Learning from all we hear and all we experience. Looking to improve how we support, respond and progress.

We hold ourselves to account and want to be held to account by those we work with and serve. Each and every one of us has our own worth and value. And it is in the spirit of humility and equality that we hear, learn and improve the most.

Together we succeed

We are successful when we collaborate, co-create, partner and work together.

Financial hardship can happen to anyone and for many reasons. Everyone's needs and situation are unique. We make no assumptions, no judgements.

Financial exclusion can be complex and complicated so we must work together with those we serve as well as other partners.

Impatient

We can't rest until financial security is achieved for all. To create change so that people can thrive we need to be proactive, take initiative, create momentum and drive forward with energy, determination and conviction. This sense of urgency is at the heart of our culture and all we do.

How we work

Our three strategic priorities:

Offer high quality information and support. We will be led by people experiencing financial insecurity, the communities we work with and our partners, and our improvement focused evaluation, to develop integrated services people need.

Strengthen communities through place-based programmes. We will develop existing programmes and start new ones, designed by and rooted in communities across the UK. Led by local organisations and people with experience of financial hardship, we will address financial insecurity and economic injustice together.

Help build a fair economy through systems change. Building on our data, insight and learning, we will campaign to build an economy that includes everyone and that we can all contribute to. We will work in partnership to create new systems that build financial security for all.

Our three guiding principles:

Championing equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging (EDIB). We know black, Asian and minoritised ethnic communities, disabled people, women and those from LGBTQIA+ communities, are more likely to experience financial hardship. Being inclusive and creating belonging will be central to the way we run our own organisation, as well as the way in which we design and offer our services.

Upholding human rights. No one should have to choose between heating their home or feeding their children. Our grantmaking, for example, addresses these wrongs and upholds people's rights.

Working for a fair journey to net zero economy. We will explore ways to support a transition to net zero in 2050 that protects people's employment and shares the benefits of a healthier, greener economy.

Our three organisational foundations:

Our culture. We will model the change we want to see across the UK. Our work will be rooted in partnership, respect, humility and mutual support.

Our finances. We will make the best possible use of our assets and investments and ensure they are on a thoroughly ethical footing. We will improve the returns from our care home business, Elizabeth Finn Homes.

Our brand. How we present ourselves and how we are experienced by everyone we meet is crucial for the delivery of this strategy. Our name – Turn2us – is both an invitation to people who need support, and a challenge to those in power, to listen to those voices of experience.

What we do

Turn2us is a national charity offering practical help to people facing financial insecurity. In 2022:

2.7 million people completed a Turn2us benefits calculation.

5.9 million people visited our website for information to help them tackle financial shocks.

Turn2us made grants worth a total of £3.4 million for 3,454 people in financial need.

1.3 million people used the Turn2us Grants Search.

Our Helpline received over 98,179 calls from people needing support to access our services and those of others.

The cost of financial insecurity

Half the people who came to Turn2us for support (according to a survey of more than 2,000 Turn2us service users, carried out between 15 June and 20 July 2022), reported being left with nothing to live on each week after paying housing, council tax and utility bills.

Nationally, nearly a quarter of people (24%) run out of money for essentials either most months or most days, according to a survey in February 2023 by Survation, on behalf of the Together Through This Crisis Coalition ↗, of which Turn2us is a member.

Since August 2021, the Consumer Price Index inflation rate has soared from 0.7% to 10.1% in January 2023, with gas prices rising by 129% in the year to January 2023. See the Office of National Statistics data on inflation. ↗

Those most likely to report feeling worried about these rising costs are women (81% compared with 73% of men); those aged 30 to 49 years (82%); people with disabilities (82% compared with 75% of non disabled people) and those who have children under the age of five (90% compared with 76% of non-parents). See the Office of National Statistics to data on the cost of living. ↗

In 2022, there were an estimated 3.26 million households in fuel poverty in England, which is projected to continue to rise to over 3.5 million in 2023. See the governments statistics on Fuel Poverty.

The demand for credit has risen sharply as people try to bridge the gap between their incomes and their needs. As a result, people in the UK owed £1,832.8 billion in personal debt at the end of December 2022, a figure up by £72.3 billion from the end of the previous year. See The Money Charity on their 2023 statistics. ↗

Poverty rates for minoritised ethnic groups have been consistently higher than for white ethnic groups over the past 25 years. Since 2000/2001, poverty rates amongst black people have remained around 40%. This is twice as high as the poverty rate for the white ethnic group which has been around 20% since 2003/04. See the Joseph Roundtree Foundation on their poverty rate statistics. ↗

Matthew's story

“We try and cut back where we can over the school holidays because we aren't able to afford to go anywhere. Sometimes it feels like we are failing our children because we can't afford to take them on days out when on paper we have 'good jobs'.”

Matthew,
Turn2us service user

Matthew, Turn2us service user.

We are a single income household, my wife is training to be a nurse and I am a recently qualified teacher, we have two children. Our rent has increased, gas and electric has gone through the roof, fuel costs for us to travel to work keep going up.

I never thought we'd be in this position but I got in touch with a Turn2us adviser who gave me the confidence to apply for more universal credit and showed me how to use the benefits calculator – and they also offered an understanding ear.

I think more people should speak up about their experience, so many people must feel alone just like we did. This is why I have been helping Turn2us with media interviews and telling our story in different ways, for example telling our family story as a graphic in The Big Issue.

Finding different platforms to speak about being in work and still struggling helps get the message across that anyone can struggle, it's not our fault, but there is help out there.
