

Diocese of Chester Flourish Co-ordinator

Part-Time (0.2)
Salary £36,179 (FTE), £7,235.80 (actual)
2 Year Fixed-term Contract

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a co-ordinator for the Flourish project in the Diocese of Chester.

As part of the Church of England's Growing Faith initiative, Flourish aims to see a network of 450 new worshipping communities established in educational settings across England, beginning with a pilot scheme involving 40 locations in 12 dioceses. There will be 4 pilot projects within the Diocese of Chester.

The successful candidate will have demonstrable experience of working with children and young people, together with an appreciation of the missional task facing the church, particularly in regard to engaging missionally with a more diverse demographic.

This is a part-time position for 1 day (7 hours) per week. The role offers hybrid working that includes working from Church House at Daresbury Park, Warrington, and travel around the Diocese.

There is an Occupational Requirement for the postholder to be a practising Christian in accordance with the Equality Act, 2010. An Enhanced DBS Disclosure will be required.

The job description, person specification and application form can be downloaded from the Diocesan website: <https://www.chester.anglican.org/support-services/job-vacancies/other-vacancies/>

For informal conversation, contact Rev Peter Froggatt, Director of Outreach at peter.froggatt@chester.anglican.org

This post could be worked in conjunction with the Christian Distinctiveness and Worship Officer post. For further details see <https://www.chester.anglican.org/support-services/job-vacancies/school-vacancies/>
