

Head of Fundraising, PR and marketing

c.36k pa – Can be office based (Pembrokeshire) or homeworking with regular travel

Sandy Bear children's charity has been growing steadily from its roots in Pembrokeshire to support children, young people and families in the lead up to, or following a bereavement. Our ambition is to ensure that no young person, wherever they reside in Wales, goes without the right support at the right time.

While our service grows, our need to develop and diversify our income does also. With a small, but dedicated team, we are now seeking a Head of Fundraising to lead and develop this work across Wales.

You will be a seasoned fundraiser with experience of managing volunteers and staff supporting a range of fundraising activity. Whether your specialism lies in communities, corporates, individual giving, or other areas of fundraising, we are keen to hear from those who understand fundraising more broadly as well as a commitment to supporting our charity be able to fund our work to support some amazingly resilient beneficiaries.

Initial conversations are welcomed with our CEO Lee Barnett, he can be contacted by email: ceo@sandybear.co.uk or to apply send in your CV and a supporting statement.
