Role Purpose

The primary role of our Specialist Teaching Assistants (STA) is to work collaboratively with each other and other professionals in the college (teacher, non-class-based specialists, Allied Health Professionals and Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) colleagues) to ensure learners experience positive learning opportunities that result in great outcomes/attainment across the college. Utilising training, knowledge, understanding, skills and competencies, with effective deployment and teacher led planning, our Specialist Teaching Assistants (STAs) will provide support to learners so that they can access the curriculum, participate in learning and experience a sense of achievement whilst also promoting their independence, self-esteem and social inclusion.

The skills, knowledge and understanding set out in the person specification have been underpinned by the national professional standards for this role.

Job description

Personal and professional conduct (PPC):

PPC 1	Have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the college / Charity.
PPC 2	Uphold public trust as professional members of staff and approach the role with positivity, creativity, problem solving and a communicative and collaborative mindset which first and foremost supports quality learning.
PPC 3	Be responsible for safeguarding learners at all times.
PPC 4	Be responsible for keeping up to date with safeguarding / health & safety policies.
PPC 5	Know, implement and actively contribute to the development of risk assessments and plans (can be related to learning, medical care, positive behaviour support) and report concerns when necessary.
PPC 8	Contribute and support to the overall vision, values and continual improvement of the college
PPC 9	Use the Ambitious Approach to underpin the focus on improving the quality of life of autistic young people through learning support.
PPC 10	Value and use differences and diversities in learning support.
PPC 11	Be self-reflective and professionally curious at all times.

Knowledge and understanding (K&U):

KU 1	Actively seek to extend knowledge and skills relevant to supporting autistic learners with a range of barriers to learning and associated complexities (education, health, therapy and care).
KU 2	Know that every learner is unique and how autism can impact their learning / access to it.
KU 3	Know learners have likes, preferences, motivators and how to engage positively and actively communicate with them.
KU 4	Have an ability to adapt your support style to meet a range of learners needs operating and across a variety of ages.
KU 5	Be ambitious and committed to acquiring knowledge, skills and competencies required to support autistic learners. Commit to CPD to better yourself and your practise to better support learning and engagement of learners.
KU 6	Know the curriculum / subject offers of the school / college and the intended individual learning objectives for sessions.
KU 7	Understand and apply learners preferred learning styles, motivators and engagement tools to effectively support learning.
KU 8	Support teaching and learning with a view to reducing direct support and maximise learner independence wherever possible.
KU 9	Be able to apply skills, knowledge and competencies to a range of learners (within class, across college).

Teaching and learning (TL):

TL 1	Seek to understand and apply knowledge about pedagogy (the art and science of teaching and learning) around autism and child/adult development to support learners learning.
TL 2	Ensure personalised approaches to overcoming barriers to learning.
TL 3	Support reducing / removing barriers to participation in all learning and extracurricular activities and value social and community access / participation.
TL 4	Know that behaviours are a communication and seek to understand these.
TL 5	Encourage self regulation to support access to learning and be willing to alter your own behavioural styles to best support learner engagement.
TL 6	Train in and consistently apply Positive Behaviour Support strategies / handling techniques (as a last resort.)
TL 7	Ensure high-quality assessment takes place by:
	 Ensuring learners know what they are meant to be learning.
	Finding out what the learners have learnt.
	Providing feedback that improves learners' learning.
	Having learners help each other learn.
	Developing learners' ability to monitor and assess their learning.
TL 8	Train in and consistently use assessment / evidence systems e.g. Evidence for Learning.
TL 9	Train in and consistently use / ensure that learners have access to their relevant communication modes at all times.
	Actively engage in a Total Communication Approach across learners (Verbal, visual, signing, digital augmentative, Picture exchange methods, objects of reference etc).
TL 10	Know the learning objectives for learners and be proactive with colleagues in ensuring that the resources and environments support learning.
TL 11	Actively consider using a range of appropriate, motivating, age respectfulness resources.

TL 12	Undertake personal care e.g. toileting, dressing, feeding and medication for learners.
