

Please answer the following questions in the cover letter section of your application.

- 1. In reference to the job description, please outline your skills and experience relevant to this role.
- 2. What unique design skills or design experience will set you apart from other candidates?
- 3. What have you done previously to ensure involvement of a diverse range of people and communities, in a role or voluntary position?