Contract	Full time, permanent
Hours	35 hours per week
Location	The Dellow Centre, London E1 7SA
Disclosure	Enhanced
Pension	Auto enrolment from day one into the People's Pension

Role purpose

- To support individuals who are rough sleeping and those who are at risk of homelessness in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets into appropriate accommodation
- To work in partnership with other organisations including health to help people move away from a life on the streets.

Key responsibilities

- Deliver support to people who will be or are at risk of rough sleeping.
- Work in partnership with Providence Row's Assessment and Reconnection Team, to identify and support clients who have a local connection to Tower Hamlets.
- Make statutory and non-statutory housing referrals dependent on the need and eligibility.
- Make referrals into safeguarding & specialist services, such as domestic abuse & sexual exploitation, adult social care, hate crime and modern slavery.
- To make referrals into Tower Hamlets and Pan-London local authority housing options services, using the Homeless Reduction Act.
- Agree plans, in conjunction with clients, to move into accommodation and access specialist services which will address the underlying causes of homelessness. This may include advice and support with accommodation, referrals into Statutory and Non-Statutory housing providers, support with benefits; accessing mental health, wellbeing or substance misuse services; linking with primary health care and referring to training and employability services.
- Ensure that all recording, evaluation and monitoring systems are used to demonstrate the impact of our work.

- Record accurate data using the charity's client database (Salesforce In-Form).
- Provide information and evidence to managers to fulfil internal and external reporting requirements.
- Participate in reviews and evaluations of work, reflecting on practice and continuously improving service delivery.
- Promote the services of Providence Row through partnership working, networking and promotion of our work, building confidence and credibility in our work.
- Liaise with partners and key agencies to ensure that client action plans are met consistently and professionally.
- Participate in the promotion of the service to clients and key referring agencies, including making presentations about the service.
- To build relationships with housing providers and the private rented sector, to increase the portfolio of affordable referral routes into accommodation.
- Contribute to the delivery of the Advice and Support Team Service according to business and operational plans, funding and budgetary requirements.
- Engage in the charity's planning process each year, contributing to the continuous improvement of the Team.
- Work alongside volunteers with the role of adding value to the work of the service, providing supervision and support where necessary.
- Work in accordance with Providence Row's values, policies and procedures.
- Represent Providence Row at events, conferences and other meetings as appropriate, ensuring effective communication about our work and learning from good practice among partner organisations.
- Undertake other duties appropriate to the scope and grade of the role.
- Attend evening and weekend meetings and functions as required.
