Information

Welcome

Hello prospective candidate! We are really pleased that you are interested in working with us here at The Lullaby Trust. Let us tell you more about our organisation.

It is a key time to be joining the charity and helping us to continue to save babies' lives and support bereaved families. The charity has been hugely successful, but the work is far from done. The impact of the sudden death of a baby is wide and never goes away, as we know from the families that we support. This drives all our work, across each department. We are a close and friendly staff team who all share passionately in the charity's objectives, vision and values.

This is a key role in the Bereavement Support Service. The team provides a wide range of services, including the Helpline, online enquiries, online community, Family Days, and online and printed resources. The aim of this post is to provide consistent, high-quality emotional support to bereaved families who seek support from the Lullaby Trust.

If you are enthusiastic and have the skills and experience we are looking for, we encourage you to apply.

Jenny Ward
Chief Executive

About us

The Lullaby Trust is a charity that saves babies' lives and supports bereaved families. Around 3 babies a week still die from sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS) and we are committed to bringing that number down to zero.

Through educating parents on how they can reduce the risk of SIDS and investing over £12million in research, we have played a key role in reducing the number of babies who die from SIDS by 80%, saving the lives of more than 30,000 babies.

Each year we train thousands of health professionals to support parents in sleeping their baby safely. We campaign tirelessly to raise awareness of SIDS and ensure our life saving advice reaches all parents.

The Lullaby Trust supports bereaved families, through our helpline and befriending scheme. Our work with the NHS to provide a Care of Next Infant Programme (CONI) offers a lifeline to bereaved families expecting a new baby.

At The Lullaby Trust, we provide an incredibly supportive working environment that embraces hybrid working, flexible hours, and individually tailored schedules. This empowers you to plan your work life according to your personal preferences and commitments, ensuring a fulfilling and balanced professional experience. If this interests you, we would love to hear from you!
