Introduction

This is an exciting time to join UK-Med. We have expanded significantly over the last few years and have an ambitious strategy in place for growth.

The world is experiencing an unprecedented level of humanitarian need. Natural disasters, disease outbreaks and conflict can hit at any time. The people affected are often the poorest and most vulnerable and the health problems they experience post-disaster are long-lasting. We believe that they deserve the highest quality emergency medical aid. We seek to save lives, but also to build resilient health systems so that people can lead healthy lives in the future.

At UK-Med, we work together to:

- Respond rapidly to emergencies, delivering the expertise needed to support local health services and save people's lives.
- Prepare health staff through training and capacity building, enabling health services to be better prepared for emergencies.
- Learn and share learning worldwide through our academic partners, ensuring patients get the best care.

This is a pivotal time in our history to join UK-Med. At the end of February 2022, we received the first of many calls asking for help with the crisis in Ukraine. We now have programmes across Ukraine including surgical support, health clinics, and emergency preparedness training. More than 10,000 people have already received direct support or training from UK-Med as a result.

In June 2022, we were awarded EMT (Emergency Medical Team) status by the World Health Organization. A month later, we were formally appointed to provide EMT services for the UK government. As such we are at the front line of the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's response to humanitarian crisis and can also respond to any crisis, anywhere in the world, under our own banner.

We are very excited about our plans and hope you will join us on this extraordinary journey.

David Wightwick

UK-Med Chief Executive Officer

About UK-Med

UK-Med (www.uk-med.org)

We're a charity and our medical teams respond to disasters around the world. We work with local emergency teams to build their resilience to future threats.

UK-Med has been responding to emergencies since 1988, when a team of eight Manchester clinicians led by our founder Prof. Tony Redmond, went to Armenia in aid of those who had been hit by a devastating earthquake. When Ebola hit West Africa in 2014, killing over 11,000 people, we recruited, trained and sent 150 NHS clinicians to work in treatment centres alongside local health workers to help bring the outbreak under control.

We have deployed clinicians following numerous large-scale natural and manmade disasters, treating patients in emergencies in Armenia, Iran, China, Haiti, Nepal, Cape Verde Islands, Sierra Leone, Bangladesh, the Philippines, Gaza, Samoa, the Kurdish refugee crisis and the Siege of Sarajevo. We have delivered training to thousands of healthcare workers in local and regional medical teams in Sierra Leone, South Sudan, China, Malawi, Myanmar, Armenia and Uganda.

Our core staff team of around 30 provides programme management and technical health expertise, logistics, fundraising and communications, finance, HR and administrative support. Our humanitarian responses are staffed by our membership - a combination of volunteers seconded from NHS employers and experienced NGO workers hired on a contingent basis for specific responses. Currently we have a membership of around 1000 people (mostly healthcare professionals and experienced NGO support staff) who have been through selection procedures, vetting and induction/training.

The UK EMT

We are a partner in the UK Emergency Medical Team (UK EMT), the front line of the UK government's response to a humanitarian crisis overseas, funded by the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO).

We prepare rapid deployment teams ready to respond to various health emergencies anywhere in the world within twenty-four hours. We can respond following earthquakes, cyclones, hurricanes, disease outbreaks or to other humanitarian contexts. Depending on the needs, we might deploy individual personnel, small clinical or advisory teams or full self-sufficient treatment centres.

The EMT network is driven by the World Health Organisation (WHO) and ensures that teams that respond following disasters are well trained, self-sufficient and have the skills and equipment to respond effectively rather than imposing a burden on the national system.
