Introduction

Thank you for your interest in working for Guide Dogs! It is an exciting time with our refreshed 2023 Strategy, By My Side, to be joining the charity as it is doing more now than ever before to help people who are blind or partially sighted to live their lives to the full.

Guide Dogs is one of the UK's best known and best loved charities. It is listed in the top 20 of the Charity Brand Index recognising our positive reputation and trustworthiness. Since our first guide dog partnerships were formed in 1931, we have transformed the lives of so many people with sight loss, helping them to get out of their homes and to live independent lives.

More than 90 years later, our work is even more relevant. Every hour, someone in the UK starts to lose their sight. Today, there are almost two million people in the UK living with sight loss and by 2050, this figure could have doubled. We know we can do more to reach more children and adults for them to walk with us as we embark on our new strategy.

We hope that this information pack will give you everything you need to know about us and about the role!

Best wishes,

The People Service Centre team

The Recruitment Process

Application

Due to the nature of the work Guide Dogs does, the individuals we support can be children, young people or vulnerable adults. In order to ensure we protect them to the best of our ability; we follow Safer Recruitment practices. This is the same recruitment practice used by schools.

A requirement of this practice is that we must have fully completed application forms for all candidates wishing to be considered for a role. The application form is made up of the online form (accessed via our job board), a full CV and supporting cover letter.

The application form must be fully completed, including providing details of sufficient professional referees to cover the past 5 years. If there is not enough sections on the form to cover the 5 years, continue on a separate Word document and upload this as a supporting document alongside your application.

The attached CV needs to provide clear details of your full work history in date order, ensuring all gaps are accounted for as well.

The cover letter is your opportunity to address the criteria for the role, as laid out in the job description. This is your personal statement to demonstrate how your skills and experience meet the requirements for the role. To provide the best evidence against the criterion, ensure you use specific examples to illustrate the specific skill or experience you are referring to. A good technique for this is using the STAR method;

S - what was the situation?

T - What was the task you had to do?

A - what action did you take?

R - what was the result?

Remember that we are interested in what you did, more than anything other people did. So, make sure that you say 'I', and not 'we'.

Shortlisting & Assessment

Applications will be reviewed by the recruiting manager as they come in. This will initially be a longlist against the essential criteria for the role. The applications that make it through the longlist, will then be reviewed in more detail against all the criteria (essential & desirable). The highest scoring applications will then be shortlisted for an invitation to interview.

Guide Dogs are a Disability Confident Employer. This means that any applicant who has declared a disability on their application form and demonstrate that they meet the essential criteria for the role within their application, will be offered an invitation to interview. This will be irrelevant of how they rank in the shortlisting against other candidates.

Once shortlisting is complete, all applicants will receive communication from Guide

Dogs, usually by email, to advise of the outcome of their application.

All roles will involve a face-to-face interview, in person or virtually; however, some may also involve other assessment stages as well. The assessment process followed varies role by role. The job advert may contain details of the planned assessment process, or you will be given more details if shortlisted.

All assessment exercises or interviews used are tailored to be able to find the most suitable candidate for the job role. They are also designed to give applicants more insight into the role and to provide a realistic expectation of the position to allow candidates to decide if the position it is suitable for them as well.

Dependent on the reasons behind the assessment process design, shortlisted candidates may complete all exercises before being informed of an outcome, or they may be reviewed after each stage and only some individuals progress to the next exercise.

As with the long and shortlisting exercise, all applicants will receive communication from Guide Dogs, usually by email, to advise of the outcome of their assessment.

Job Offer

Once all assessments have been completed, results for all applicants in consideration will be reviewed by the recruitment panel and a decision will be made about the most suitable person for the role.

If successful, the recruiting manager will be in contact to congratulate you and discuss the offer details. Once accepted, pre-employment checks will be carried out, including a full 5-year professional reference history and a disclosure check if applicable for the role.

Onboarding

The successful candidate will be provided with an official offer letter, and their terms of employment for review, signing and return. This will be subject to all pre-employment checks being completed, returned and deemed satisfactory.

Once a signed contract has been returned, the successful candidate will be advised further of their onboarding process and start date if this was not included in the contract.

Feedback

All candidates are welcome to request feedback on their application or interview/assessment. To do so, please use the contact details below, specifying the role to which the request relates.

If there is a large volume of candidates, feedback on application may take us a while to provide, especially if the recruitment process is ongoing.

For candidates that have declared a disability, please advise in what format would be most helpful to receive it in.

Reasonable adjustments

At any stage in the recruitment process, if you require any reasonable adjustments to complete required stages, please contact the recruiting manager or the People Service Centre on the details below. How we can support you can then be discussed in more detail to identify the most reasonable adjustments that can be implemented.
