About Us

Coach Core is a social mobility charity that uses sport and apprenticeships to change the long-term career pathways of young people facing discrimination, exclusion, or lack of opportunity in the UK.

Everything we do is about convening the right people and collaborating with the right organisations. With a staff team of only 11, we instead make the change we want to see by building and empowering local networks that can then address the challenges in their own communities. By using the vehicle of sports coaching, these young, relatable role models are then bringing much-needed additional sport and physical activity resources to the areas that need it most, so they are not only changing their lives, but those around them too.

Since 2012, we have worked with nearly 1000 apprentices in 19 UK cities, placing them with over 250 employers across the sport, physical activity, and youth work sectors. In addition to developing their own skills and improving their future prospects, these inspiring young people facing lack of opportunity, exclusion or even discrimination, have also impacted over 12 million beneficiaries through their work.

As a trusted and respected partner in the sport and physical activity sector, we now embark on the next chapter of our journey.

We will soon be launching our 2024 – 2027 strategy that seeks to deepen the impact of the charity and enhance our offer further over the coming years so that we can ultimately provide more life-changing career opportunities than ever before. We also want to demonstrate the socio-economic impact of our work by elevating our profile in the right places and using our platform to become an even stronger advocate for under-represented young people and for apprenticeships in general.

Our Model:

- Fundraise to provide grants that assist community facing employers.
- Engage a broad spectrum of partners to recruit young, diverse, NEET talent
- Work with specific training providers to enroll apprentices,.
- Establish powerful partnerships to provide an unparalleled programme of education and skill development.
- Give individuals access to opportunities and help them achieve positive career pathways.

Who we're looking for

As part of our mission, we are now seeking amazing new trustees to join us and lend their experience, skills and passion to help us on the next part of our journey.

Could this be you?

We are looking to appoint a trustee that can support how the charity measures and communicates its impact to the wider public, as well as looking at ways to enhance current best practice and identify any new opportunities we could or should consider.

Currently the charity employs a Data and Impact manager who works closely with the programmes team to obtain the key quantitative and qualitative content that demonstrate the impact the charity has across its projects. The trustee would lend invaluable support to the D&I manager to provide that critical eye, opinion, and opportunities to ensure we are accurately capturing the key details of our apprentices, tracking our outcomes, and telling the best possible stories on behalf of our young people.

Whilst working in the sport and physical activity sector would be advantageous, we would welcome applications from anyone working in/has experience working with academia, data insight organisations, Government policy measurement, similar roles in the private or third sector.

Ready for it?

Duties

You will fulfil all the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a formal Trustee as outlined by the Charity Commission in their Essential Trustee Guide.

Whilst this specific role of Data, Insight and Impact is not a formal position on our board, we are asking for specific duties in line with the above:

- Agree and set an overall approach to data and insight across the charity.
- Support the D&I manager with support and guidance ongoing.
- Review any key policies, public facing reports, etc prior to finalisation.
- Connect the D&I manager/CEO/wider charity team to any relevant opportunities or updates that could enhance our work.
- Potentially support any events and/or research papers we conduct and/or feature in.

Person Specification

- You will have demonstrable experience working with data and case studies that ultimately evidence the impact of projects and programmes.
- You will have extensive networks and a track record working with multi-stakeholder projects that deliver on focused outcomes.
- You will be familiar with a range of budgets to achieve the best possible solutions linked to your work.
- You have high standards and a critical eye whilst also being able to work with others to find the best outcomes for all.

Location

In-person meetings to take place in London (as listed in Time Commitments below) with online arrangements made where necessary.

Time Commitment

The expectation will be:

- 4x 2-hour quarterly board meetings per annum (in person) with 4x 60-minute 'update only' meetings per annum (online) at midpoints between these board meetings. 2 – 4 sub-committee / steering group meetings per annum (60min maximum)
- Potential informal 1:1 meetings with key charity team members (based on your skills and insights) on a frequency to be jointly agreed.
- Any other requests for time made to review specific projects or processes are made in agreement and in advance with the trustee.
- Invitations to key charity events where applicable/available.

All meetings take place on weekdays and during work hours. We would like to underline that we fully understand the volunteer nature of this role and will be respectful of the time given to support the charity.

Our Offer

- A structured induction programme to the charity and its people.
- The opportunity to further your development and understanding in the sport for change sector, in the world of apprenticeships, and/or working with under-represented young people in our settings.
- A chance to grow your network through your peer trustees, the literal hundreds of Coach Core employers and partners, and be part of a number of events throughout the year where we invite supporters to meet the team.
- Any training and development that the charity offers as part of its education or perks to staff that we can make available / is of interest to you.
- An opportunity to fundamentally and directly shape the future direction of this exciting, young charity that has already achieved so much in its first few years.
- Unremunerated with reimbursement of expenses in line with CCF's standard expense policies.

Terms of Office

The terms of office for elected trustees is 3 years. At the end of this period, trustees may be nominated for a further term, and there is a maximum of 3x three-year terms before a mandatory resignation would be required. Re-election can only be considered after another term has passed.

Closing Date:

Friday 26th
April 2024,
5pm.
