Advance is committed to equality and diversity and strongly encourages applications from women with diverse backgrounds, including those with disabilities, BAME and LBT communities.

Job Summary

Advance's Minerva service works with women involved in the Criminal Justice System offering safe, targeted support and advocacy to women to help them address their complex needs in relation to the 9 pathways to offending, such as substance misuse and financial difficulties, aiming to reduce re-offending, encourage desistance amongst repeat offenders, and empower women to live safe, crime free lives.

In your role as a Community Keyworker, you will be working with women involved in the Criminal Justice System; those on Probation in the Community and those women being released from Prison as part of their Post Sentence Supervision; providing some in-reach and 'Through the Gate' support. You will be working in a team of Community Keyworkers in your region. Each Keyworker will provide holistic one to one community support to women with a variety of needs.

Key Responsibilities and Duties

Provide an in-reach prison service to women via video call/telephone and face to face prior to leaving custody to assist in preparing them for release and meeting them at the gate upon release.

Provide outreach support and advocacy to women in the Community with varying multiple complex needs and across each complexity level.

Conduct an initial holistic assessment of women's needs.

Develop and regularly review individual support plans across all 9 pathways of need.

Regularly meet with women to provide dedicated emotional and practical support, adopting a trauma informed, non-judgemental approach to empower women towards an independent, safe, crime free life in line with Advance's vision and mission.

Attend the different probation offices in the region you cover, integrate with National Probation Service staff and introduce the Minerva services to the client, encouraging referrals to the service and establishing positive relationships.

Develop strong professional relationships and networks with local support services and advocate for the woman with external agencies, including at Housing, Social Services, MARAC and IOM panels.

Contribute to developing and updating the local Services Directory with details of local organisations, key contacts and details of services on offer, including eligibility criteria.

Ensure that Advance meets contractual obligations, including the prompt upload of records onto the Ministry of Justice portal alongside swift and accurate record keeping via Advance's case management software (MODUS).

Consistently review your work, obtaining feedback from clients on exit from the service and using this to inform the development of our services.

Be responsible for your own personal learning/development and keep up to date on research, relevant legislation, policy and practice, and other literature relevant to the role.

Participate in supervision, training and meetings as required, and assist in the development of services in line with agreed development plans.
