

Job Title: Community Keyworker – Minerva

Service/Division: Criminal Justice Services

Reports to: Service Manager - Minerva

Direct reports: None

This post is open to female applicants only as this is deemed a genuine occupational requirement under Schedule 9, Paragraph 1 of the Equality Act 2010.

Advance is committed to equality and diversity and strongly encourages applications from women with diverse backgrounds, including those with disabilities, BAME and LBT communities and with personal experience of the criminal justice system.

Job Summary

Advance's Minerva service works with women involved in the Criminal Justice System offering safe, targeted support and advocacy to women to help them address their complex needs in relation to the 9 pathways to offending, such as substance misuse and financial difficulties, aiming to reduce re-offending, encourage desistance amongst repeat offenders, and empower women to live safe, crime free lives .

You will be working in a team of Community Keyworkers in your region. Each Keyworker will provide one to one community support to women with a variety of needs simultaneously and will be co-located with partner organisations in their region. You will be expected to travel to Advance's Head office in London for any organisational meetings and training, as and when required.

Key responsibilities and duties

- Provide an in-reach prison service to women via video call/telephone and face to face in the 12 weeks prior to leaving custody to assist in preparing them for release and meeting them at the gate upon release.
- Conduct an initial holistic assessment of women's needs.
- Develop and regularly review individual support plans across all 9 pathways of need.
- Regularly meet with women to provide dedicated emotional and practical support, adopting a trauma informed, non-judgemental approach to empower women towards an independent, safe, crime free life in line with Advance's vision and mission.
- Attend the different probation offices in the region you cover, integrate with National Probation Service staff and introduce the Minerva services to the client, encouraging referrals to the service and establishing positive relationships.
- Develop strong professional relationships and networks with local support services and advocate for the woman with external agencies, including at MARAC and IOM panels.
- Contribute to creating and updating the local Services Directory with details of local organisations, key contacts and details of services on offer, including eligibility criteria.
- Ensure that Advance meets contractual obligations, including the prompt upload of records onto the Ministry of Justice portal alongside swift and accurate record keeping via Advance's case management software (MODUS)
- Consistently review your work, obtaining feedback from clients on exit from the service and using this to inform the development of our services.
- Be responsible for your own personal learning/development and keep up to date on research, relevant legislation, policy and practice, and other literature relevant to the role.

- Participate in supervision, training and meetings as required, and assist in the development of services in line with agreed development plans.

General Information

Performance and Quality: Ensure all work undertaken is aligned to the service/division's annual plan and that all policies, processes and guidance notes are up to date and in line with best practice/current legislation.

Policies and procedure: Ensure the effective implementation of Advance's Safeguarding, Health & Safety, Equality and Diversity and other policies and procedures and uphold the core values of Advance.

Equality and diversity: Advance aims to create and sustain an inclusive work environment which provides equality of opportunity for everyone and reflects the diversity of the communities we serve. The postholder is required to uphold the Equality and Diversity policy and comply with the code of conduct which sets out our standards of behaviour towards those who use our services or work within them.

Confidentiality: The post holder must ensure that any information relating to employees, service users, and volunteers (future, current and past) is treated in strictest confidence and must be discussed only within the confines of the work setting with the appropriate members of the team or manager.

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time when it was drawn up and will be reviewed from time to time. Duties may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and cannot of themselves justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post
