- Ability to work as part of a small, committed and mutually supportive team – working collectively toward shared aims, objectives and values.
- Ability to build and nurture strong relationships with individuals.
- Exceptional written communication skills, with the ability to adapt style and writing to different audiences, funders, partners etc.
- Ability to use data and evaluation information to tell a compelling story to evidence impact and a case for support.

Personal Attributes

Essential

- A good listener, who can communicate with a range of people
- Friendly and welcoming manner
- Organised and methodical in your approach to work
- Motivated and enthused by NewBridge's work, values and aims
- Commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, environmental sustainability and social justice.

4. Information & Guidance on how to apply/selection process

The deadline for applications is Monday 12 August, 12 noon

All applications must be sent to applications@thenewbridgeproject.com with the subject heading Development & Reporting Manager Application

We have a number of different ways to apply for this role. You can do this through:

- A single PDF document containing the information outlined below
- A video or audio file containing the information outlined below
- A mixture of written and video or audio application (e.g. an audio application but written Equal Opportunities Form)

If you require any adjustments to the recruitment process, please contact us directly so we can discuss how to support you in your application.

Please read this job pack carefully before applying – the job description and skills outlined should help you to make a strong application.

In your application (whether written, audio or video) please include the following:

A. Statement (no more than 2 A4 pages or 4 minutes in total) including the following:

- Your name
- Your pronouns - tell us how you like to be referred to such as she/her, he/him, they/them
- The job you are applying for
- Any access requirements or adjustments you want us to know about
- Why you want this role?
 - This is the most important part of your application – and we use the statement (without CV) to inform our initial shortlisting.
 - Think about the role and the organisation – what interests you about NewBridge? What about this role appeals to you? What do you hope to get out of this role?

Tell us how you would approach the role of Development & Reporting Manager at NewBridge, and what you would like to bring to the role and organisation.
- Tell us how you are a good match for the skills and experience we are looking for.
 - Tell us about any relevant work, education, training, skills and experience you have in relation to the information we have provided in Sections 2 and 3. What skills, experience and attributes would help you to do the job? How does current or recent work and experiences match the criteria for the role?

B. CV (no more than 2 A4 pages or 3 minutes) including the following:

- Name, address, up to date contact information (phone and email)
- Any relevant experience (education, trainings, jobs, volunteering, life skills)
- Please include background such as roles, responsibilities or projects for specific items on your CV.

- 2 references

C. Equal opportunities and diversity monitoring form

We ask all applicants to complete our Equal Opportunities Form, which helps us monitor the diversity of our organisation and our work. Your responses will be treated with full confidentiality. If there are any questions you would rather not answer, please just tick 'prefer not to say' or skip to the next question.

Selection process

Applications will be assessed by at least two members of the NewBridge team and a Board member, and we assess applications using a matrix based on the answers given in your statement or audio/video application. Please note this scoring matrix is based on the skills and experience outlined in section 3, and how well you demonstrate your ability to carry out the responsibilities in section 2.

We will primarily use your statement for our assessment so please ensure any information you want us to see is in your statement rather than your CV.

Equal Opportunities monitoring information may be taken into account at final shortlisting stage to help us achieve our diversity and inclusion goals. This is part of our commitment to taking positive action to achieve equality of opportunity throughout our recruitment process.

Interview

Interviews will be held Thursday 22nd August. Please indicate in your application if you cannot make this date.

If you are shortlisted for interview, we will contact you via email, giving full details of the time, date and who you will be meeting at interview. We will also provide you with the main questions you will be asked in advance, though we may ask some follow up questions during the interview.

Getting in touch

If you're thinking of applying for the role but still have some questions, we are holding an Online OPEN DAY on Tuesday 9th July, where you can sign up to have a chat with Rebecca (Director) about the role. Please sign up for a slot HERE.

Once your appointment is confirmed we will email you a zoom link, or we will request a phone number to reach you by telephone if you'd prefer.

We are also happy to try to arrange a time on another day if the 9th July doesn't suit you.

We can also answer written questions via email, please send your query to applications@thenewbridgeproject.com with the subject heading Development & Reporting Manager Query. Please don't leave it too late with any questions though, so we can make sure we have time to get back to you.

5. Background information about The NewBridge Project

The NewBridge Project is an active artist-led community that supports artists, curators and communities through the provision of space for creative practice and an ambitious artist-led programme of exhibitions, commissions, artist development and events.

Our programme builds solidarity with the people around us, and is community-centred, experimental, collaborative and socially conscious at its heart. We work with our studio members, the wider artistic community and our neighbours to create a programme that responds to their needs and those of the local environment.

Our main areas of activity are:

NewBridge Exhibitions and Commissions

The NewBridge Project supports artists to produce new commissions, exhibitions, events, performances and screenings, generating an exciting programme of contemporary art that engages with the world around us.

We aim to deliver an artistic programme that is artist-led and experimental in its approach. NewBridge staff work alongside a Programme Committee to shape and deliver an artistic programme with a diverse curatorial voice, which supports the production and presentation of new artwork through exhibitions, commissions, off-site projects, our bookshop and events.

As well as stand-alone projects and commissions, we explore broader themes over long periods which inform one-and-other, and the way we develop our public programme and organisation. These have included, Hidden Civil War, which explored austerity and inequality in the wake of the EU referendum; Deep Adaptation which considered how social, political and economic issues could be understood in relation to climate change; and For Solidarity, an ongoing project which has mapped and established a network of organisations, communities and individuals who are working toward social and climate justice, and exploring alternatives to the mainstream economic system.

Artist Development

We have three strands of artist development, which together provide support for artists at all stages of their careers and from all backgrounds to develop new creative and professional skills and experience.

- Practice makes Practice is a rolling programme of events, workshops and opportunities that help people to build new skills and develop their careers. We plan this programme in response to needs and interests of our members and the wider creative community.
- The Collective Studio is an annual development programme for early-career artists or recent graduate artists. It provides participants with affordable studio space, opportunities to test out new ideas, and access a training programme of events, mentoring and socials.
- Create / Disrupt – A new development programme which supports those with no university degree and / or who face barriers to developing their artistic skills or a creative career. This programme includes free, skills workshop, and dedicated programme co-created by a cohort of participants.

Studios & Workspace

The NewBridge Project offers studio and workspace to artists at any stage of their career. Our studios are a community, where social interaction and conversations support artists to work together, discuss new ideas and make exciting new work.

The NewBridge Project provides affordable and accessible studio and project spaces for artists and creatives in the North East. The workspace is a critical and collaborative community, that allows artists to discuss and develop new ideas and projects. We have recently moved to a new building at the Shieldfield Centre, which is home to around 110 artists. The space houses studios, co-work spaces, member-led workshops, flexible project spaces for making and presenting work, and our public gallery space and bookshop.

Space and Community

The NewBridge Project creates a welcoming and public space, and we aim to provide a resource for the creative and local community alike. This includes a programme of cultural, social and education activity including events, creative workshops and communal meals.

We are proactive in listening and learning from everyone we work with, from our studio members to the wider creative community, audiences, local communities, audiences and residents – so that we can ensure we are producing programmes and facilities that are relevant, timely and responsive to the interest and needs of the people we work with and place we work in. We work in exciting, innovative and unique ways to develop and nurture relationships with individuals, communities and audiences, creating spaces for deep listening and learning.

NewBridge houses a gallery space, artist-led bookshop, library, screening room, event spaces and multiple workshops and project spaces. But our space is more than just a building; it's a public, welcoming place where people can come together to meet, make, learn and socialise. Through these facilities and a regular programme of events and activities including communal meals, social events, creative workshops and the Shieldfield Youth Programme, we aim to provide a resource for the creative and local community alike, building a community of artists, members, residents and contributors.

Shieldfield Youth Programme

The Shieldfield Youth Programme is an ongoing programme of activity developed The NewBridge Project in partnership with Dwellbeing Shieldfield and in collaboration with young people living in Shieldfield. It officially launched in Spring 2021.

The Shieldfield Youth Programme creates a space for young people to come together in the place where they live, build new friendships, and offers opportunities for them to develop their skills and talents and to explore new ways of thinking and doing things together. It aims to empower people to become active members of the local community and is locally rooted, thematically strong and aims to instil values of solidarity, social and economic justice, creativity and activism.

Our Youth Team work with over 90 young people and their families in Shieldfield through weekly activities, monthly workshops, trips, events and detached youth work/relationship building. We also develop exciting projects with the young people themselves which aim to have a positive impact on the place we live and work!

Funding and Partnerships:

Our current funding and partnerships have enabled the organisation to grow and flourish, and we want to sustain the strong staff team we have built, and the unique and responsive programmes that we create through maintaining and building upon this.

We have a strong track record in fundraising, which has enabled the responsive and considered growth of our team and activities. The Development & Reporting Manager role will involve maintaining strong relationships with existing funders, including Arts Council England from whom we have secured four years of funding until March 2027 as a National Portfolio Organisation, with Newcastle Culture Investment Fund with whom we have three years of core funding until March 2025, with SHED, with Jerwood Arts who are supporting a new development programme for socially engaged artist, and with North of Tyne Skills for Growth Fund, who are supporting three years of activity ending September 2025 across our artist development programmes.

We aim to build on this work through making applications to new funders, which will further support our work in the long-term, provide additional core support across staff and running costs, as well as approaching smaller grant-making organisations for project support.

This role part-funded by the North of Tyne Combined Authority
