Reports to	Head of Public Fundraising
Directorate & Team	Fundraising Public Fundraising
Contract type	Full time. Permanent
Location	17-21 Wenlock Road, London, N1 7GT
Salary	£40, 560 per annum Grade 5 / Zone 1

Who we are and what we do

The Disasters Emergency Committee (DEC) is a unique and dynamic membership organisation which comprises 15 of the UK's leading humanitarian agencies: ActionAid, Action Against Hunger, Age International, British Red Cross, CAFOD, CARE International, Christian Aid, Concern Worldwide (UK), Islamic Relief Worldwide, International Rescue Committee UK, Oxfam GB, Plan International UK, Save the Children, Tearfund and World Vision.

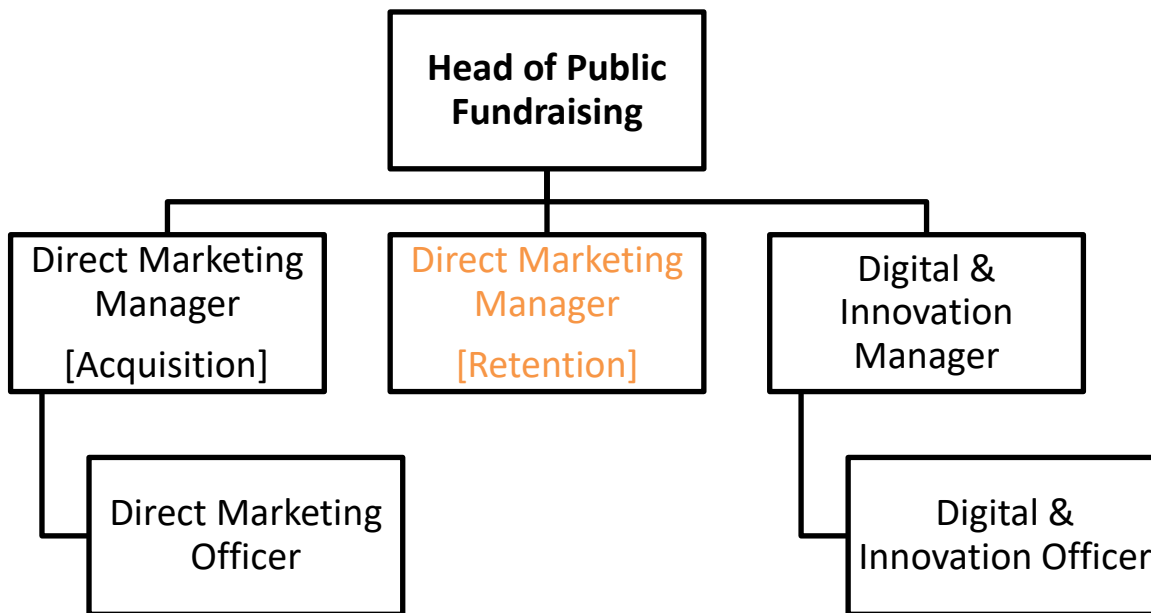

Since it was founded in 1963, the DEC has run over 77 fundraising appeals and raised more than £2.4 billion to help save lives and protect livelihoods in disaster-affected communities around the world.

The DEC launches appeals when there is a humanitarian emergency of such magnitude to warrant a national UK response. DEC fundraising appeals benefit from unique corporate partnerships through our Rapid Response Network and the combined expertise of our member agencies, resulting in wide reaching appeals across high profile TV, radio, and an increasing number of digital channels.

Most DEC funds are raised over an intensive two-week period following a disaster. Appeal funds are specifically for overseas humanitarian work and are normally spent over a two or three-year response period. An important part of the DEC's remit is in learning, accountability and sharing information.

The DEC Secretariat is funded by contributions from its member agencies and a range of core cost funders, and is responsible for the day-to-day running of the DEC. There are currently 36 staff members and a small number of dedicated volunteers, working together to promote the strategic values of collaboration, accountability & transparency, learning, humanitarian, and impartiality.

Team Structure

Purpose of the role

The Direct Marketing Manager (Retention) is responsible for shaping and delivering new and existing supporter journeys for DEC individual, community and legacy donors, and leading a programme of improvement across all major contact points between the DEC and the public.

The post holder will work closely with the Head of Public Fundraising and relevant staff to develop and deliver direct marketing materials to provide updates and information on how donations are being spent. During the launch of an appeal the post holder will work with key suppliers and agencies to update and monitor fulfilment materials, lead a programme of supporter insight, deliver welcome journeys and support the delivery of wider direct marketing materials where required.

The post holder will work with the Public Fundraising team to utilise a large database of supporters for communication by email, SMS, and direct mail. They may identify new fundraising channels, journeys and ideas for increasing the impact of income generation and lifetime value of donors. They will also oversee and support the delivery of materials that support community fundraising in DEC appeals and a light touch legacy marketing programme.

Following each appeal, the post holder will deliver a major above and below the line programme of supporter communications to feedback to supporters and the public on the impact of their donations and to retain their future support.

The purpose of the role is to:

- Contribute to and develop DEC direct marketing strategies, including the refreshing, implementation and analysis of the DEC's segmentation, in order to maximise future income and continually improve the retention of individual supporters for future emergency appeals,
- Lead on the production of retention and reporting back materials for individual and community supporters,
- Manage the development and maintenance of specific supporter journeys,
- Develop and oversee the materials and supporter positioning for a light touch and mainly reactive legacy marketing programme for the DEC.

Key responsibilities and competencies

Strategy and Planning

- Develop and implement the direct marketing retention strategy, ensuring that past learnings are built upon, and new ideas are tested.
- Develop and implement specific audience journeys for segments across both the life cycle of a DEC appeal and between appeals.
- Lead and build a light touch and reactive legacy marketing function within with Public Fundraising Team that integrates with the life cycle of individual supporter journeys while not changing the DEC's USPs or core supporter proposition.
- Ensure timely and relevant communications to all direct marketing, community, and legacy audiences on the impact of their donations.
- Build an improved supporter journey strategy for new, repeat, and lapsed donors.
- Develop new direct marketing initiatives and tests, particularly as related to individual donor retention, community, and legacy marketing.
- Lead, design, and monitor the collection of audience insight during appeals.
- Lead specific projects related to direct marketing activities as required, possibly in conjunction with Member Agency staff and/or with external consultants.
- Work with colleagues to deliver relevant portions of the DEC's 5-year strategic plan.

Fundraising

- Develop the DEC's donor journeys for individuals and community supporters, monitoring the development of segments and the engagement of repeat donors.
- Provide analysis during and following an appeal of performance to measure and report performance against key indicators and develop recommendations for improving impact in the next appeal.
- Support the stewardship of community fundraisers and groups in conjunction with the Supporter Services team.
- Maintain an interest in direct marketing innovation for continuous learning and improvement.
- Contribute to the budgeting and financial management of the direct marketing programme.

Networking and building relationships

- Develop excellent working relationships with the DEC’s suppliers including creative agencies, media agencies, SMS and email suppliers, and the print/mailing house.
- Work with permanent and temporary staff at the DEC during appeals to maximise the success of the appeal.
