

Job description

Job title: Employment & Learning Advisor

Reports to: Employment & Learning Manager

Contract: permanent, part-time 0.6fte

About us:

The Cardinal Hume Centre works to prevent and tackle youth and family homelessness. We:

- Provide a home with support for up to 39 young people
- Support children and families in housing or other need
- Offer housing and welfare rights advice to help people keep or find a stable home and to manage their money
- Advise and coach people to find work, learning or training
- Provide immigration advice to help people secure their legal right to remain in the UK to access homes, work and benefits

In the last year we helped more than 1500 young people, children and families, aiming to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty from a young age. Our approach is personalised, acknowledging the unique complexities of each individual through six key services: residential; family support, legal advice, employment, education and immigration advocacy.

The Centre is based within five minutes' walk from Parliament but works in an area where homelessness in nearly all its forms has increased. Around 3,800 children from Westminster are housed in temporary accommodation. Over 30% of children live in poverty. Families face unaffordable housing costs, a challenging labour market and rising levels of crime.

With an annual income in the region of £3.5 million, the Centre currently employs around 70 dedicated members of staff and around 50 volunteers.

Team context:

You will work alongside 2 full-time Employment & Learning Advisors and the Employment & Learning Manager. The team is supported by volunteer ESOL and IT tutors who work with clients in a 1-2-1 and group capacity. You will also work closely with advisors in other areas including housing, welfare and immigration.

About the role:

This is a new post. We are pleased to be growing this team to help strengthen our ability to secure outcomes with clients. The overall purpose of this role is to work with a caseload of clients and find suitable career and learning opportunities for them and support them to find appropriate employment.

The role is part-time working 21 hours across the week, which is 3 full days based on our working hours. We will agree the working days with the successful candidate and would be open to flexible working patterns e.g. shorter hours over 4 or 5 days.

We predominantly work with clients who have limited or no work experience in the UK, or who have had extended gaps in their CV due to family commitments. We are therefore developing programmes that help develop confidence, skills, qualifications, and opportunities for our clients to help them progress into careers. The postholder will have the opportunity to contribute to the development and delivery of these, alongside their 1-2-1 casework.

Job description:

1. Provide impartial one-to-one careers guidance using up-to-date labour market information and agreed guidance frameworks.
2. Plan and deliver group sessions and workshops relating to career pathways
3. Assess individual learners' needs, create action plans and follow up to monitor progress and outcomes.
4. Develop and maintain relationships with local employers, apprenticeship providers and training organisations to broaden opportunities.
5. Manage a caseload, maintain accurate records (complying with data protection) and produce reports on activity and outcomes.
6. Contribute to careers programmes, timetables and events such as careers fairs, employer visits and work experience.
7. Support transition planning and progression tracking for participants, referring to specialist services where required (e.g. SEND, welfare, safeguarding).
8. Keep professional knowledge current: labour market trends, funding routes, apprenticeships, traineeships and higher education options.
9. Deliver case studies to show impact of your work with clients
