What will I need to do?

Every year hundreds of people run, abseil, skydive and eat cake, to raise funds to help Rainbows care for babies, children, young people and their families across the East Midlands. Behind them are a team of dedicated Event Volunteers who are vital in ensuring our events run smoothly.

From local concerts and golf days, to daring abseils and firewalks our events are vital in helping to raise not only funds, but awareness of the work Rainbows Hospice does across the East Midlands and they simply wouldn't be possible without our enthusiastic volunteers helping on the day. Not only is it a great opportunity to connect with a range of different people; it is also one of our most flexible volunteering roles, allowing volunteers to choose events which fit around their schedule and commitments.

We'll keep you in the loop with our regular newsletter, packed with exciting updates on Rainbows' activities and a list of upcoming events needing volunteer support.

Typical tasks the role could involve:

- Be the Welcoming Face: Collect tickets and entrance fees, welcome guests with a smile and help set the tone for an unforgettable event.

Rainbows is the only hospice in the East Midlands dedicated to providing specialist care and support services for babies, children and young people with serious and terminal conditions.

Our volunteers are invaluable. They help us to deliver a vast range of services across the organisation. The truth is we can't do our work without the help of our volunteers – together we bring more love, smiles and laughter to our children and families.

Our commitment to diversity and inclusion

We believe that everyone who works, engages and is supported by Rainbows should be valued and treated with dignity and respect. At Rainbows we strive to ensure we are there for everyone who needs us and maximise our reach by learning from the experiences of others, working across all communities and truly listening to a range of different voices.

Our values

At Rainbows, our values are evident in everything we say and do; they are what makes Rainbows so special. All volunteers should be aware of our values and strive to always uphold these values and behaviours.
