COFFEE SHOP SUPERVISOR

Feel Good is looking to recruit an experienced and highly motivated individual as a Coffee Shop Supervisor for this exciting social enterprise.

This role is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious person, passionate about using their skills in hospitality/business to co-ordinate the operations of a small social enterprise, and improving the outcomes for young people and young adults.

Feel Good (previously The Feel Good Bakery) is a social enterprise set up by Regenerate in 2014 as part of our Employment service. The coffee business trains, employs and mentors young people aged 16-25 who are not in education employment or training (NEET), have experienced disadvantage or are at risk of exploitation.

Feel Good currently have 2 active sites - our flagship shop in Southfields and a cart in Battersea - and are currently looking to open another shop elsewhere in Wandsworth. This is an exciting period of growth in size and impact, and our team of supervisors are integral to the success of this.

Reporting directly to the Feel Good General Manager, the role will be responsible for maintaining the coffee shop sales and supervising and coaching the young people in their employment.
