About IAMSCS

I Am Somebody's Child Soldier (IAMSCS) is a non-profit organisation dedicated to supporting post-war recovery, mental health, and reintegration for vulnerable communities affected by conflict in Africa.

Our Core Values

At I Am Somebody's Child Soldier (IAMSCS), our work is guided by the following core values:

Community-led

Equity-focused

Speak Up

Co-create

Innovate

Youth Oriented

Our Mission

To empower former child soldiers and victims of war by supporting their mental health, rehabilitation, reintegration, and long-term wellbeing through sustainable livelihood initiatives, education, psychotherapy, and community partnerships, while raising awareness of the impact of post-war trauma and mental ill health across Africa.

Role Overview

We are seeking a Fundraising Volunteer to support the development and delivery of ethical, mission-aligned fundraising initiatives. This role is ideal for someone passionate about social impact, donor engagement, and sustainable funding models.

Key Responsibilities

- Support the planning and execution of fundraising campaigns and initiatives
- Research potential donors, grant opportunities, and partnerships
- Assist with donor communications and fundraising materials
- Support online fundraising and awareness campaigns
- Track fundraising activity and support reporting where required

Skills & Experience

- Interest or experience in fundraising, development, or nonprofit work
- Experience of working with potential donors in Uganda, or elsewhere in east Africa as well as the UK is desirable
- Strong written communication and research skills
- Organised, proactive, and able to work independently
- Alignment with IAMSCS's mission and values

Why Volunteer with Us

- Contribute directly to programmes supporting post-conflict recovery and mental health
- Gain hands-on experience in nonprofit fundraising
- Work with a committed, purpose-driven leadership team

Please note that the right to work in the UK is required.
