FutureMe Progression Coach Job information pack

About ThinkForward

ThinkForward exists to empower young people to create better and brighter futures. We want them to be able to identify, realise and shape their aspirations and be ready to make a successful transition into work.

Young people experiencing barriers such as challenging relationships, living in low-income households, or growing up in areas with a lack of access to opportunities and can be confronted with hurdles. Without the right support these barriers can lead to high risks of unemployment and long-term effects on career and life chances.

There are more than 800,000 16-24-year-olds in the UK who are not at school or college, or don't have a job or training place. Our ambition is to prevent young people becoming one of these statistics.

In 2024 we will be supporting more than 1000 young people.

About our programmes

The FutureMe programme provides five years of personalised coaching and employability activities to get young people ready for the world of work. Coaches build trusted relationships, empowering young people to take control, find solutions to challenges, develop skills and create a positive vision for their future.

Specialised ready for work activities support young people to get familiar with the workplace, become inspired and identify a pathway to their chosen career. We run this programme in 15 schools in north and east London, Nottingham and Kent.

About our programmes

The ODNLQJ @WUHCHE programme operates in London and the West Midlands, working with young DGXWOW people with mild to moderate learning disabilities with the aim of supporting them into sustainable paid employment.

Coaches provide long-term support to prepare young people for sustainable paid employment. Young people take part in insight visits, work placements and business mentoring to build their experience and develop skills and capabilities. We also work closely with parents to engage them in the opportunities and benefits of the programme.

About our programmes

The Future Leaders programme works with young black men and women in Year 10 and 11 that are at risk of exclusion or have been excluded from mainstream school. In London, young Black students are more likely to be excluded from school than White British students and young Black men experience high unemployment rate.

Future Leaders works with young black men and women in alternative provisions to make a successful transition into a post-16 destination, overcome the barriers they may face such as a lack of networks, social capital and soft skills, and prepare them to be ready to find a fulfilling career.

About the Role

Our Programme Coaches are at the heart of the ThinkForward initiative. Coaches provide young people with personalised one-to-one coaching and group activities, as well as exposure to the world of work and cultural enrichment activities. Coaching enables young people to overcome challenges holding them back from achieving their potential and ultimately a safer and more successful pathway into employment and adulthood. Our young people are supported by ThinkForward for five years, from 13-18 years old.

Our Progression Coaches project manage the FutureMe programme within one of our schools and its local community, ensuring that quality and impact is achieved, while also managing successful relationships with our partner schools and businesses.
