Where Generosity Grows Through Community

gardenoflove.net

Our Mission

Empower people and organisations through a purpose-driven platform that connects charities, supporters, and communities.

What We Do

GardenOfLove brings fundraising, volunteering, and community together in one place. At the centre of the platform are "Gardens" — topic-based community groups where people surface shared concerns and turn them into real-world action, whether that means bringing in a verified charity or organising the response themselves.

Every act of giving or volunteering carries through to a follow-up "Update," so supporters never wonder what happened to their donation or their time. Charities on the platform are verified against the UK Charity Commission register, and every fundraising or volunteering transaction is free of platform fees — GardenOfLove is supported instead by optional, voluntary tipping.

A Few Facts

- UK-based, headquartered in Borehamwood, Hertfordshire.
- Every charity on the platform is a verified, UK Charity Commission-registered organisation.
- Zero platform fees on fundraising or volunteering transactions — the only cost is unavoidable payment processing.
- Built around the belief that kindness and giving are among humanity's strongest traits — and that a platform can be built to prove it.
