A note on Transformation:

We're transforming volunteering at Scouts to make it easier, more enjoyable and rewarding. We'll be rolling out changes in phases to help us:

- Give a warmer welcome for everyone
- Deliver better learning
- Simplify how we volunteer together

All of which needs to be supported by easy-to-use digital tools.

As part of Transformation some of our language and titles will be changing over coming months, and County/Island Commissioners will become known as County/Island Lead Volunteers, District Commissioners will become District Lead Volunteers and so on, in this document we have started to use our new titles and roles

Introduction to the England Team

It is an exciting time to be involved in Scouting, as we develop and progress our Skills for Life strategy, in order to prepare better futures and deliver skills for life to young people who want to access Scouting.

The Island Lead Volunteer role is an important UK Headquarters appointment within the England Team, responsible for providing inspirational and effective leadership for one of the 60 English Counties. As Island Lead Volunteer you will take the lead for implementing our 2018-25 strategy with your team of Group Lead Volunteers and ensuring they feel motivated and supported to lead the Scout Groups to success.

Liz Henderson, Chief
Commissioner/Chief Volunteer of England

The England Team is broad and also includes our staff colleagues within the Growth and Communities Team, the eight Regional Lead Volunteers, our regional growth and learning leads and the new core volunteer teams (Support, Programme and Volunteer Development). You will be joining a team of talented, focused volunteers who are all passionate about bringing brilliant Scouting to every young person who wants to take part.

The role of Island Lead Volunteer is a demanding one, but we believe that it is critical to our success as well as being a highly rewarding challenge for the right volunteer. We are looking for individuals who can lead and inspire their team by being a great coach, critical friend and motivator. This is a senior manager role within Scouts and comes with significant responsibilities. It also offers a unique opportunity to make a real impact on the lives of young people on your Island through building, nurturing and leading a team to deliver our shared vision. This role provides the opportunity to be at forefront of our continued success within England Scouting.

If you're not convinced yet, check out page 5 where we have asked some of the team to explain why they enjoy being a Lead Volunteer so much.

Why would I want to volunteer as an Island Lead Volunteer in Scouts?

So what's in it for me you're wondering? Whilst volunteering as an Island Lead Volunteer can be challenging at times, it is also incredibly rewarding and here's why, according to our current team of County Lead Volunteers in the England Team...

As Island Lead Volunteer you will be able to really develop and hone your leadership skills by managing teams of remote volunteers across the breadth of Jersey. Leading and managing volunteers provides so much more opportunity and experiences than with employees, what you can gain by doing this really well can be a great asset for your professional life as well as in Scouts. The issues and challenges that you find ways to tackle will stretch you as an individual and as a leader and you'll find yourself discovering new things that you are capable of achieving.

This role is all about people and one of the incredible benefits of volunteering in any role in Scouts, but even more so as Island Lead Volunteer, is the teams of people you get to work with. You will inherit an incredible team of dedicated people leading Scouting in Jersey, from Group Lead Volunteers who manage Scouting on a local level, to the people delivering high quality learning for our Scout volunteers. As Island Lead Volunteer you get to inspire, motivate, shape and develop this team, building friendships and establishing a sense of camaraderie focused around our mission for young people.

If you get a kick out of seeing things happen, achieving success and making a positive impact to a wide audience then the Island Lead Volunteer role definitely provides all of that. In this role you will get to see the difference that Scouts makes to so many young people's lives across a large area, helping them developing skills for life, fostering friendships and providing so many incredible and unforgettable experiences.

As Island Lead Volunteer you have an important role to lead the progress of our strategy. One such element of our strategy where County/Island Lead Volunteers play a leading role is in the provision of our Scouting programme to those harder to reach communities and groups of young people who might not normally have the option to take part. It will be your role to help lead our efforts to do this in Jersey. It is an exciting time to take up the reins and support this work to achieve our ambitious goals for new young people.

And if you're reading this thinking that it all sounds quite exciting and something you'd quite enjoy doing, but maybe you're worried about the timing or you might think there is someone else who would be better for the role, ask yourself if not me, then who? If not now, then when?

The role - Island Lead Volunteer

Outline:

The Island Lead Volunteer is a key volunteer leadership role within Scouting with responsibility for providing outstanding management and support for the six groups within the Island of Jersey. The primary focus for the Island Lead Volunteer is to ensure that Scouting is able to reach every young person on the Island; open to all regardless of faith, colour or social background, because we believe Scouting has the ability to change lives. This is achieved by leading the team of six Group Lead Volunteers, and other Island appointments as well as working with the Growth and Communities Team (employed staff) to provide enough places to meet the demand for Scouting, and by ensuring that every youth member has access to a high-quality balanced programme that is challenging, relevant and rewarding.

- Appointed by: Lead Volunteer of the South West of England, via a search group process supported by the HQ Volunteering Services Team
- Responsible to: Lead Volunteer of the South West of England
- Responsible for: Group Lead Volunteers, all other Island appointments, however it is expected that line management for other roles are delegated to Deputies/Assistants.
- Main contacts: Group Lead Volunteers, Island Chair, Island Network Scout Lead Volunteers, members of the Island Trustee Board and its subcommittees, other County Lead Volunteers in the Region, Lead Volunteers of England, members of the local community, schools and other youth organisations on the Island.
- Key tasks:
- Ensure that every Squirrel Drey, Beaver Scout Colony, Cub Scout Pack, Scout Troop, Explorer Scout Unit and Scout Network within the Island is able to deliver a high-quality programme which is challenging, relevant and rewarding for every young person
 - Provide proactive line management, including coaching, mentoring and guidance to Group Lead Volunteers as well as other adult volunteers on the Island who directly report to you including setting objectives for their work, holding regular one-to-one meetings and reviews.
 - Build and maintain a sense of an Island Team by holding regular team meetings with the appropriate volunteers within your team to collaborate and provide peer support.
 - Lead a safe, open and transparent culture around keeping young people and adults safe through our Yellow Card and key policies.
 - Ensure the timely recruitment and appointment of new Group Lead Volunteers where required and ensuring that interim arrangements are put in place for any vacant posts.
 - Together with the Group Lead Volunteers, agree the priorities for the Island Scouting and produce a plan to deliver these to meet The Scout Association's vision and strategic objectives.
 - Ensure that problems within the Island are resolved so that an effective volunteering culture is encouraged and Group Lead Volunteers feel supported to deal with challenging issues, including complaints in a timely manner.
 - Ensure that the Island has an adequate team of supported and appropriate adults working effectively together and with others to meet the Scouting needs of the area..
 - Act as an ex-officio trustee as a member of the Island Trustee Board, and an ex-officio member of the Council of The Scout Association.
 - Play an active part within the South West of England regional team by attending up to 3x meetings per year for County/Island Lead Volunteers, led by the Regional Lead Volunteer, and twice yearly England Team meetings for all County/Island Lead Volunteers to contribute to the development of Scouting within England as part of the Headquarters team.
 - As part of the Island Trustee Board you will be jointly responsible for working as part of the Team overseeing the successful running of the Activity Centre in St Ouen.

Appointment requirements:

- Island Lead Volunteers are currently required to validate the learning for our manager and supporter volunteer training scheme, completion of which is recognised through the achievement of a Wood Badge for the County/Island Lead Volunteers role.

Moving forward learning will be broadly split into Growing Roots and Branching Out. Growing Roots is the learning volunteers need to do within their first 6 months of starting. Branching out is learning volunteers can access to further develop their skills and knowledge. It spans across a wide range of areas. Some of the learning is required if you want to do certain things – like learning for our accreditations - and some is there to engage in if and when it is helpful for the specific person.

The Wood Badge will continue to be available in the two versions we are used to - one for people focused on delivering the programme, and one for people focused on leading and supporting other volunteers. However, It'll be part of the Branching Out learning, becoming optional and open to all, and a volunteer will only get one Wood Badge.

As a key leadership position within Scouts we expect new County/Island Lead Volunteers to set a strong example and complete required learning within the relevant timelines.

- County/Island Lead Volunteers must be eligible for charity trustee status (as a member of the Island Trustee Board).
- It is expected that whilst volunteering for this role you will undertake regulated activity.
- Island Lead Volunteers are also expected to actively contribute as a member of their regional team and England Team, this includes attending between three to six regional team meetings and two All England Team meetings per year. As an ex-officio member of the Council of The Scout Association, County/Island Lead Volunteers are expected to vote on matters presented to Council including elect trustees to the Board and attend the Annual General Meeting, usually held on the first weekend in September.

Terms of appointment:

The initial length of appointment is at the discretion of the Regional Lead Volunteer, through discussion with the appointee, and is usually for a period of one to three years initially before a formal appointment review. Island Lead Volunteers may complete no more than a total of ten years in the role. Renewal and continuation of appointment is at the discretion of the Regional Lead Volunteer and appointment reviews may be conducted at any time at the request of the role-holder and/or Regional Lead Volunteer.

Note: Many of the tasks for which the Island Lead Volunteers is responsible may be delegated to others in the Island Team if appointed. Whilst the new appointee will inherit an existing team of volunteers in key Island appointments, it is expected that new Island Lead Volunteers will review and reorganise their team's objectives and roles as they see fit.

For more information about the role

Interested candidates are also encouraged to review Factsheet FS330074 available online at: County/Area roles | Scouts which provides more information about the role of the County Lead Volunteers, structured around the six key areas of leadership and management.

Jersey Scouts

In Jersey Scouts, there are 6 Groups. This covers the whole Island's total membership in January 2023 was 972, which includes: 735 young people and 237 adult volunteers

- 0 Squirrels (4 – 6 year olds)
- 232 Beaver Scouts (6 - 8 year olds)
- 267 Cub Scouts (8 - 10 ½ year olds)
- 162 Scouts (10 ½ - 14 year olds)
- 74 Explorer Scouts (14 – 18 year olds)
- 0 Network members (18 – 25 year olds)
- 237 Adults (18+ year olds)

The current vacancy

We're currently looking for a Island Lead Volunteer. This is a management role, and we need someone who can provide leadership, motivation and guidance to our other adult volunteers.

The management structure of Scouting is as follows:

Adults at every level need support to ensure that they are motivated, inspired and focused on providing first-class Scouting. A good manager thanks other volunteers for their hard work, and helps to make sure that they feel happy and supported, week after week.

The Island Lead Volunteers will also provide direction for the Island's Scouting, and will help others see the bigger Scouting picture through solid leadership.

We believe that everyone in management roles within Scouting should adopt an approach that combines the skills of both leadership and management.

In Jersey, there are several key tasks and activities which are carried out by the Island Lead Volunteer and volunteer leadership team which would form part of the role and fall within the new Island Lead Volunteer's scope to review, adapt and delegate accordingly. Some of these are carried out by the current Island Lead Volunteer and some are delegated to Deputy or Assistant Lead Volunteers. The important point here is that we don't expect the IslandLead Volunteer to be a super-hero and do all of this, or devote every hour of the day to the role.

Core Skill Areas

We've identified six core skill areas that make a good Scouting manager:

1. Providing direction

A good Island Lead Volunteer will create a vision for Scouting in their area, and provide clear leadership to implement that vision.

2. Working with people

It is vital that an Island Lead Volunteer can create team spirit amongst the other volunteers they work with, and can form effective working relationships based on trust and the fundamental principles of Scouting:

- integrity
- respect
- care
- belief
- cooperation

3. Achieving results

Good Island Lead Volunteers ensure that goals are achieved, plans are seen through to completion, and that good relationships are maintained within and between Scouting Groups. Forging links within the local community is also an important aspect of development.

4. Enabling change

It is important for Island Lead Volunteers to encourage volunteers to think of creative ways to improve Scouting across the Island. They should then provide the support to implement appropriate changes.

5. Using resources

A good Island Lead Volunteer will ensure that information and resources are available, helping volunteers across the Island to continue to provide excellent Scouting opportunities to young people.

6. Managing time and personal skills

A good Island Lead Volunteer should use their time effectively, and be willing to continue to learn and improve their skills.

Induction for new Island Lead Volunteers

Induction plan delivered by the Growth and Communities Team

New Island Lead Volunteers will receive a series of face to face and remote interactions with the Growth and Communities Manager, in conjunction with the Lead Volunteer, as part of a structured induction for the role. These interactions will also include an opportunity to develop a plan of action in the role with dedicated support from staff within the Growth and Communities Team to implement actions around developing and growing Scouting on the Island.

Headquarters Volunteer Induction Days

County/Island Lead Volunteers are appointed by UK Headquarters to lead Scouting in their assigned County, and as such are a key part of the Headquarters Team, working in partnership with staff colleagues employed by the national charity, who are responsible for managing a range of nationally delivered services for local Scouting. New County/Island Lead Volunteers are invited to attend a two-day Headquarters induction at The Scouts' national headquarters at Gilwell Park, London where you will have the chance to meet with key staff colleagues to put faces to names and explore the support available to you as part of the wider Headquarters team.

The Growth and Communities Team

The Growth and Communities Team is part of the UK Headquarters staff team within the Volunteering Operations Department, with field-based staff who cover the eight English regions. Teams of Growth and Recruitment Officers, Local Growth Operations Managers and Growth and Communities Managers work alongside Group Scout Lead Volunteers, District, County/Island and Regional Lead Volunteers, as well as Assistant Regional team Members (Growth) to help open new sections, units and groups, provide tools to help existing groups to grow, provide training on adult recruitment, and support the induction of new volunteer managers in Scouting.

The Lead Volunteer for the Region is a key link between the Growth and Communities Team and local Scouting. Through close working and effective communication, the Lead Volunteer for the Region will develop plans with you and the other County/Island Lead Volunteers in the team to ensure the best use of resources to achieve Scouting's goals for the region, as agreed with the Chief Volunteer of England. One Growth and Communities Manager manages the staff team for both the South of England regions and works closely with both Regional Lead Volunteers. The Growth and Communities Manager is line managed by the Deputy Chief Volunteering Officer.
