Join our Team as a

FUNDRAISING OFFICER

We're a fun, close-knit team led by our CEO, Laura Baxter, supported by an engaged Board of Trustees and Advisory Group. We're a small charity with big ambitions, and it's an exciting time to join F6IT. You'll have the opportunity to help shape our growth, build fantastic corporate and community partnerships and generate income to help more disabled children and young people access inclusive opportunities.

ARE YOU...

- A natural relationship-builder who enjoys connecting with people?
- Creative and proactive, with a talent for spotting opportunities?
- Organised, reliable and great at juggling priorities?
- An enthusiastic team player with a flexible, can-do attitude?
- Passionate about creating inclusive opportunities for disabled children and young people?

... if so, we'd love to hear from you!

Location: Home-based, with regular travel to meetings and events
Hours: Part time, 20-25 hours per week.
Salary: £28,000–£32,000 FTE
(£14,933–£21,333 per annum pro rata, depending on hours and experience)

If you would like an informal conversation about this role please email Laura Attwater at fundraising@f6it.org
