

Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust Role Profile: Managing Director, Royal Papworth Charity Job Description/Person Specification

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for considering a position at Royal Papworth Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

Contained in this pack is a job description and person specification. We recommend that you work through the contents of this as you complete your application. We would encourage you to get in touch with the contact for the advert to learn more about the role ahead of your application.

We feel it is a great time to apply to join our incredible organisation; our world-wide reputation and opportunities to gain exceptional experience mean that this is a wonderful place to develop your career.

Royal Papworth Hospital is the UK's leading cardiothoracic hospital, treating approximately 50,000 patients each year, and is currently rated 'outstanding' in all domains by the Care Quality Commission (CQC). The Trust is one of the best NHS trusts in the country for inpatient experience, achieving 9.7 out of 10 in the CQC inpatient experience survey, and regularly scores 97% in outpatient feedback from the friends and family test.

What we ask for from you

At Royal Papworth, we pride ourselves on our values. We expect all our staff to uphold our values of compassion, excellence and collaboration at all times. This means that we are committed to recruiting the right people to create the best working environment: people with the skills, behaviours, and competencies to achieve and support high standards of patient care in a specialist centre, pioneering interventions, and improvements. You will find more information about our values and behaviours at the end of this role profile pack.

Royal Papworth Hospital is proud to employ a diverse workforce who are encouraged to use their individuality in their work. We believe that our success as an organisation relies on our ability to foster an environment which encourages using our differences as a strength. We work to ensure that these differences are protected and that everyone is treated with respect, kindness and dignity at all times. We empower staff to promote an environment of speaking up, to understand bias and to ensure that our workplace remains free from discrimination.

What you can expect from us

We have many exciting programmes and initiatives that are ongoing, helping us to deliver our strategic objective to deliver the best staff experience in the NHS.

Our Collective and Compassionate Leadership programme was developed in collaboration with our employees to understand our eight priorities for improving our culture and leadership. Through developments like this, we are continually working to ensure we are embedding the right leadership culture across the Trust with support and empathy at the fore.

The health of our staff is our priority.

We have a comprehensive range of health and wellbeing initiatives in the form of mental, physical and financial support programme, such as the staff hardship fund which provides food vouchers, emergency financial aid for people experiencing hardship.

All employees can also enjoy 50% off food and drink in our hospital restaurant.

We have dedicated health and wellbeing facilitators working across the Trust to support staff. We are proud to run staff networks which meet regularly: Race Equality Network; LGBT+ Network; Women's Network; Disability and Difference and Carers (DAD) Network.

The benefits of working for Royal Papworth extend beyond job satisfaction.

As a member of the Royal Papworth family you will have access to the following benefits: continuous professional development; NHS Pension Scheme; extensive retail discount scheme, access to free, confidential health service; free access to an Employee Assistance Programme; subsidised restaurant, staff recognition and appreciation scheme, membership options at Frank Lee Centre Leisure & Fitness (campus gym), salary sacrifice 'cycle to work' and 'car lease' scheme, flexible working, access to library services, on-site childcare, and a generous annual leave entitlement of 202.5 hours (27 days) plus bank holidays.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Job Summary

The Managing Director of the Royal Papworth Charity is responsible for the strategic development and delivery of the Charity Strategy, together with the overall management of the Charity's resources in line with Trustee Board decisions.

The role will work in partnership with Campus stakeholders to deliver sustainable growth for the Charity, diversifying funding streams and developing the Charity's international brand reputation.

The role will act as a figurehead for the Charity, modelling inclusive and collaborative behaviours that align to the Charity and Trust values and that foster a sense of belonging across the team.

Main duties of the job

The Managing Director is the Charity's most senior member of staff and is responsible for the Charity functions (akin to a Directorate), including:

Strategy

- Working in partnership with the Trust and liaising with the Trustee Board to develop the Charity's strategic vision and workplans.
- The implementation and delivery of the Charity Strategy, securing long-term sustainability through growth, ensuring that plans are achieved within timelines and that resources are managed effectively in line with the aims of the Charity.
- Facilitating the growth and development of the Charity by diversifying funding and income streams, inspiring philanthropic giving, growing the Charity's brand domestically and internationally and delivering sustainable income levels.

Putting people first

- Modelling inclusive and collaborative behaviours that align to the Charity and Trust values and that foster a sense of belonging across the team.
- Motivating staff, volunteers, donors, partners and other stakeholders to deliver the vision and mission of the Charity.

 Coaching, inspiring and directly managing the Charity senior management, empowering them to achieve their potential and ensuring that they in turn help to build a culture that respects, values and empowers staff.

Delivery and governance

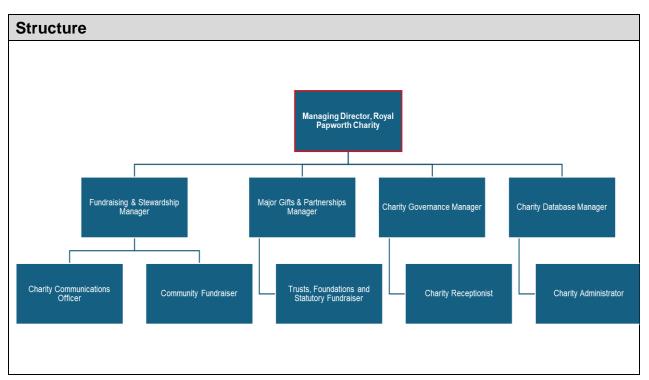

- Directing the Charity's operations, managing its resources effectively and ensuring compliance with all relevant legal and governance requirements. This includes ensuring systems and structures are in place to enable the Trustee Board to fulfil its legal and governance obligations, providing accurate information and advice to enable informed and timeline decisions in accordance with the law, Charity Commission requirements and the Chairty's own policies. The role will lead the development of policies and procedures across the Charity, as well as actively contributing to Trust wide corporate policies where relevant. This includes the production or oversight of the production of papers for the Charitable Funds and Trustee Board Committees, and other ad-hoc reports as required. This also includes leading on the narrative and production of the Charity annual report.
- Overseeing the delivery of all fundraising and other income generating activities of the Charity. This will require expert knowledge of the full cycle of donor stewardship and an ability to work in highly emotive setting, demonstrate expert stakeholder managing, influencing skills and strategic thinking.
- Ensuring the overarching framework of governance is operating effectively, reflects best practice and adheres to ethical and legal standards, complying with all relevant law and good practice guidelines. This includes the safeguarding of donor information in line with data protection requirements.
- Overseeing the financial planning, reporting, budgeting and asset management of the Charity, promoting a culture of value for money. This includes an ability to work with external advisers, including the Charity's Investment Managers, seeking to understand the strategic drivers of fund performance and working with the Trustee Board and Chief Finance Officer to hold fund managers to account for performance.
- Working with the Trust and other grant recipients as appropriate to provide accountability to donors and the Trustee Board, ensuring charitable funds are spent in line with the intention of donors and for the greatest impact.
- Working collaboratively with clinical leads and other colleagues within the Trust (as relevant), patients and others to ensure compelling fundraising cases are cultivated for support. This will include working in a creative way across multiple complex stakeholders, demonstrating an ability to apply research and learn from others.

Stakeholder engagement, brand profile and reputation

- Working with the Communications team to deliver a marketing and communications strategy that seeks to communicate engaging and motivating messages both internally and externally, demonstrating the impact of charitable funds and the need for continued support.
- Protecting and developing the Charity brand, reinforcing the reputation of the Charity as a value-led organisation with high ethical standards and integrity.
- Preparing reports and documents for the Trustee Board and other groups, as required, including overseeing the production of fundraising materials and the safe use of the Charity's brand identity.
- Acting as key representative for the Charity at internal and external meetings and events, acting as a spokesperson for the Charity where appropriate.
- Contributing to donor and partner relationships, working in partnership with Campus partners and other stakeholders to identify, where appropriate, approaches to high value potential supporters.
