

MENTORING MANAGER NORTH

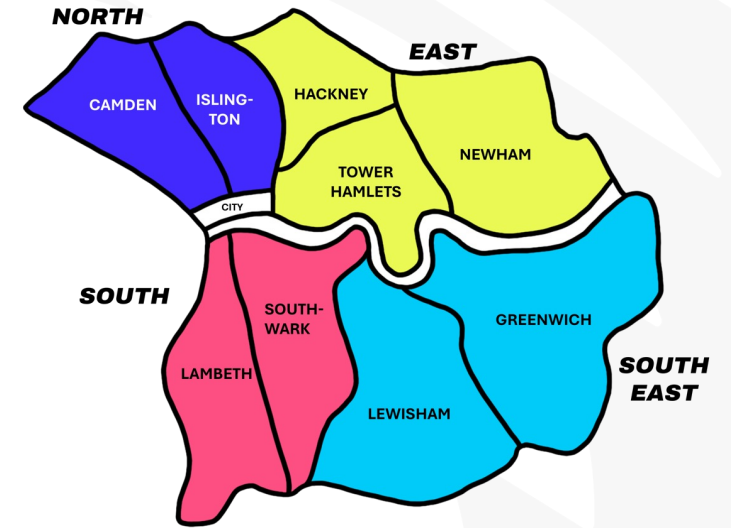

CAMDEN | ISLINGTON

XLP is a vibrant youth work charity dedicated to shaping bright futures for young people. Leading the charge against poverty and educational failure in inner London, we offer holistic, long-term support to 11 to 25 year olds in both schools and communities.

Over the past eight years XLP has run a nationally recognised mentoring programme which runs in nine London boroughs. These mentoring projects target at risk young people between 11 – 18 who are on the verge of exclusion or excluded from school, at risk of involvement or already involved in crime, and isolated from their communities. The aim is to support these young people and help them see alternatives to what can sometimes seem a hopeless situation.

We're looking for a Mentoring Manager to join the team to recruit, train, monitor and supervise mentors sourced from the local community in North London. These mentors commit to providing 1-2 hours face to face per week for a minimum of 12 months with their allocated mentee.

This is a hybrid role with approx. 50% of your time being face-to-face. Mondays are based in our central London office.

VALUES

Our Mission

We fight for the young people that fly beneath the radar. Those who have been written off and ruled out; whose hope for the future is waning. We see the young people that others forget.

Not only do we see their struggle and their circumstances, but we see their potential. In them, we see talent, we see skill, we see courage.

PEOPLE FIRST

We are a Christian charity and are "faith-based, but not faith-biased," working with young people of all faiths and none. We are guided by the values of love, compassion, and helping others that come from Jesus' life and teachings. We use these principles to make a real difference in our communities.

Our staff team is dedicated to growing in diversity and inclusion, aiming to reflect the communities we serve. We welcome applications from all backgrounds, ethnicities, and genders.
