

Network volunteer

Kaleidoscope

Location: Remote (Not restricted by country)

Reports to: Director

Commitment: Flexible, part time (details negotiable)

Role: Unpaid volunteer position

Purpose: To help more people hear about the value of Kaleidoscope, while developing our recruitment and fundraising in your local area. This is also a space to bring your leadership skills and passion for Kaleidoscope to life locally.

Key responsibilities

- Represent Kaleidoscope in your community and help promote our work and increase fundraising opportunities.
- Actively engage and build relationships with local groups and associations.
- Run stands at events, community spaces, conferences or protests
- Give talks and short presentations about Kaleidoscope and inspire others to support our work.

Additional Duties

- Attend team meetings - 1 hour online on a fortnightly basis

For this volunteering opportunity, having your own transport would be a helpful addition. Any mileage you incur can be claimed back through our volunteer expenses policy.

Essential Skills and Attributes

- Good communication and presentation skills
- Ability to actively seek opportunities for talks and build relationships in the local community
- Self-motivation and the ability to motivate others.

youthkaleidoscope@gmail.com <https://www.youthkaleidoscope.org/>

- Basic IT skills and access to email.
- Flexibility to offer support when opportunities are available.

Time Commitment Estimate

- The time commitment needed for this role will vary depending on the time of year and number of groups and associations actively supporting Kaleidoscope within your local area.
- The minimum time we ask for is ...2 - 4... hours a week.

Training and Support

- A comprehensive induction to Kaleidoscope and training for the role.
- Resources to support you in your role e.g. presentations.
- Support from your the Kaleidoscope Committee and remote volunteers
- The opportunity to gain and develop skills and to meet other volunteers.

Mission Alignment Requirements

All applicant must demonstrate:

- Understanding of Kaleidoscope's core purpose
- Adherence to safeguarding and ethical guidelines (AI to not be used for the work of Kaleidoscope)

Expenses

Kaleidoscope is committed to ensuring that no volunteer is out of pocket because of expenses incurred whilst carrying out their role. Reimbursement of out of pocket expenses incurred during your volunteering in accordance with Kaleidoscope's volunteer expenses policy.