

Skills & Experience

We welcome applications from those with all or some of the following:

- Music degree or equivalent musical qualification and/or demonstrable experience in musical performance
- Experience of managing musical and artistic groups and appointing musicians eg Musical Directors, accompanists etc and managing choral repertoire and planning musical direction
- Knowledge of video and recording processes and experience managing record and video production suppliers from creative concept to final product
- Understanding of the science of well-being through music and how to measure impact and benefit
- Familiarity with mental health first aid training and mediation skills
- Numerate with experience in budgetary controls
- A collaborative and proactive approach, making a positive contribution to team culture
- Advanced MS Office Skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Office 365)
- Experience of the military community, either as serving personnel or a family member of serving personnel and/or an ability to understand the lived experience of our beneficiaries and how best to meet their needs
- Demonstrable experience of working in a high-pressure environment requiring clear thinking, analytical skills, planning and project management
- First-class communication skills - written, verbal and listening
- A passion for the Military Wives Choirs, our mission, and our vision

To apply please submit your CV and a covering letter covering why you would like this role and the key skills that you can bring to kcarmichael@militarywiveschoirs.org