

Job title:	Public Affairs and Policy Manager
Length of contract	1 Year fixed term contract with immediate start.(With potential of extension depending on funding)
Reporting to:	CEO
Salary:	Under review and Commensurate with experience
Hours:	28-35 hours. Onsite with possibility of some hybrid hours. (Job share considered)
Closing date:	Rolling
Benefits:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * 5% pension contribution * fixed term contract * Annual Leave 25 days plus bank holidays pro rata * Employee Assistance Programme * Training Opportunities * Flexible Working * Possibility of some hybrid hours
Additional:	The post holder will be required to occasionally travel across Britain, and undertake evening and weekend work where necessary and required for the post.
Role description:
We are a small committed and dynamic organisation looking for someone with the same drive and values to social justice to join our team. The role will lead and spearhead The Traveller Movements policy development, research, campaigns & advocacy, and external relations, ensuring the organisation effectively influences use TMs policy and research, develops and maintains strong relationships with external stakeholders. Key responsibilities include developing and implementing a comprehensive policy and advocacy strategy, stakeholder engagement and partnerships, communications and public relations, sector engagement and line management of a small committed team. The successful candidate will be an exceptional communicator, with strong strategic thinking, analytical and relationship building skills. You will have proven experience in policy development, advocacy, or public affairs, particularly related to one or more of the following areas, health, education, criminal justice and race equality. You will have experience of managing projects and budgets and contribute to TMs growth and sustainability. You will be committed to and passionate about the mission of The Traveller Movement and improving outcomes for Romani (Gypsies), Travellers and Roma communities. Suitable candidates from the Romani Traveller Roma communities are strongly encouraged to apply.	