Working for RBL

RBL employs c 1,900 people across the country campaigning on behalf of the Armed Forces community, delivering support services to them, leading Remembrance on behalf of the nation, raising funds to support our work and developing and running the organisation and our network of membership branches.

We work collaboratively across our workforce and operate flexible hybrid working practices in our major hub offices, using the latest technology to stay connected with colleagues, members, and beneficiaries. We come together around our common purpose, and our values.

RBL is modernising, and we are ambitious to deliver more for the communities we support. We are becoming a more inclusive, flexible, customer-focused, data-driven, and collaborative organisation. But don't just take our word for it. Read our employee stories here, and about our impact here.

It's therefore an exciting time to be part of both changing the lives of our customers and changing the organisation and its future capacity and capability. This presents considerable opportunities for learning within role, and possibilities for career development...And, of course, the satisfaction that comes with knowing that you are making a real difference to the lives of those who serve/have served our country, to keep us safe and to protect our democratic freedoms and way of life.

Diversity, Equality and Inclusion

We are committed to building a truly inclusive organisation of diverse people and perspectives.

We actively engage in a programme of work to develop our practices and we have set out our commitments to realise this ambition. We will keep listening, learning, and sharing our progress and impact.

We are Disability Confident employer, signed up to Race Equality Matters and Pride In Veteran standards.

We guarantee an interview to any applicant who declares a disability or/and are part of Armed Forces community on application and whose application demonstrates that they meet the Essential criteria of the role, as set out in the Person Specification.
