

Development Manager

ABOUT THE ROLE

The Development Manager is a key income-generation role responsible for growing philanthropic and contributed income for The Roses. Working closely with the CEO, Marketing Manager, Board members and external fundraising consultants, the postholder will lead the cultivation, stewardship and growth of individual giving, corporate support, patron schemes and donor development opportunities.

This is an exciting opportunity for an ambitious fundraiser to help shape and deliver a sustainable development strategy for a thriving arts charity with deep roots in its community and ambitious plans for the future.

Reporting to: Marketing Manager

Location: The Roses Theatre, Tewkesbury (hybrid and flexible working available)

Contract: Permanent (subject to funding)

Hours: 4–5 days per week (0.8–1.0 FTE)

Salary: £27,000-£30,000 FTE

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Individual Giving and Patron Development

- Lead the development, delivery and growth of The Roses' individual giving and patron programmes.
- Recruit, retain and steward donors at all levels, creating meaningful and engaging supporter journeys.
- Develop and manage relationships with existing patrons, donors and prospects.
- Identify and cultivate new individual supporters, increasing both donor numbers and lifetime value.
- Work with colleagues to create compelling cases for support linked to organisational priorities and projects.

Corporate Partnerships and Sponsorship

- Identify, research and develop new prospects for sponsorship, partnership and philanthropic support.

- Create tailored sponsorship and partnership proposals in partnership with the marketing department.
- Manage and steward corporate supporters to maximise retention and long-term value.
- Work with senior colleagues, trustees and networks to develop high-value fundraising opportunities.

Trusts and Foundations

- Oversee the organisation's trusts and foundations fundraising programme.
- Work closely with external fundraising consultants to identify opportunities, develop applications and manage pipelines.
- Coordinate project information, budgets, evaluation data and supporting materials required for applications and reports.
- Ensure timely delivery of funder reporting requirements and strong stewardship of grant-making relationships.

Development Strategy

- Contribute to the creation and implementation of the organisation's Development Strategy.
- Work with the CEO, Marketing Manager, trustees and other stakeholders to identify and pursue new fundraising opportunities.
- Monitor fundraising performance against agreed targets and KPIs.
- Provide regular reports and updates to senior management and trustees.
- Maintain accurate fundraising records and pipeline management systems.

Events and Donor Engagement

- Collaborate with colleagues on fundraising and cultivation events.
- Lead donor recruitment, stewardship and engagement activities linked to performances, launches, campaigns and special events.
- Develop opportunities for supporters to engage more deeply with the work of The Roses.
- Support the planning and delivery of campaigns designed to attract new donors and strengthen existing relationships.

Marketing and Communications Collaboration

- Work closely with the Marketing team to ensure fundraising communications are compelling, consistent and effective.
- Support fundraising campaigns through digital, print and in-person channels.
- Contribute to supporter communications, impact reporting and donor recognition activity.

General

- Act as an ambassador for The Roses, building positive relationships internally and externally.
- Ensure compliance with fundraising regulations, GDPR and relevant charity sector best practice.
- Maintain accurate supporter records and data.
- Undertake other duties reasonably required by the Marketing Manager, CEO or organisation.
