

Role Profile

Details
Job Title:	Public Relations Manager
Contract Type:	Fixed-term
Job Grade:	Manager
Reports to:	Head of Communication & Engagement
Based in:	Harrogate with frequent travel across Yorkshire
Hours:	Full time, 37 hours (also open to 4 days p/t applications)
The Public Relations (PR) Manager takes a central role in raising the profile and awareness of Yorkshire Cancer Research and the work of the charity. Reporting to the Head of Communications & Engagement, the PR Manager develops engaging, relevant and powerful content for new and existing audiences across Yorkshire, and beyond. Thinking creatively, they proactively initiate and reactively respond to opportunities to promote the charity's brand, strategy and values.
Key responsibilities
PR Deliverables <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan and deliver innovative and engaging media events and activities in support of the charity's public relationship strategy. • Proactively identify opportunities to publicise the charity's work and impact through a variety of media channels. • Build ongoing relationships with people who have benefited from the charity's work (case studies) and whom are willing to help promote the charity and its impact. • Collect and manage personal data, including photographs and video content, in line with the GDPR and charity policies at all times, immediately reporting any potential breaches to the charity's Data Controller. • Develop and manage relationships with journalists, influencers and potential stakeholders. • Respond to reactive media enquiries with clarity, accuracy and professionalism. • Plan and oversee content production for PR purposes, such as video, social media, and imagery.

- Evaluate PR activity against their goals and objectives to support a culture of continuous improvement.
- Work with the PR representatives of partner organisations to ensure joint PR activities reflect the charity's strategic goals and brand messaging.

Media Event Planning/Management

- Plan and lead media events, ensuring both the media and charity spokespeople and representatives are thoroughly briefed and prepared.
- Brief spokespeople and case studies, providing speech-writing support and organising media training if this is required.

Colleague Leadership and Collaboration

- Coach and support the Communications Officer, setting goals and objectives as part of regular Personal Development Plan meetings.
- Review PR communications, editing and enhancing own work and that of others, ensuring the charity's PR outputs are of a consistently high quality.
- Manage the team's resource, prioritising communications activity and working collaboratively to support the communications objectives of teams across the charity

Content production

- Negotiate with media providers and agencies to secure best value for the charity.
- Monitor the PR budget to maximise impact and benefit.
- Undertake other duties relevant to the purpose of the role when requested by line manager.

Qualifications

- Degree or equivalent professional experience in Public Relations, Journalism, English or Communications.

Knowledge and Experience

- Significant experience in a media/PR environment, preferably with experience of managing others within this environment. Experience of planning or leading PR or media campaigns.
- Excellent computer literacy, with extensive knowledge of MS Office applications, especially Sharepoint, Word, Teams and Outlook.

- Up to date with the requirements of GDPR and confident in adhering to these requirements.
- Have an understanding of the media and social media landscape, and their relationship with charity PR.
- An understanding or appreciation of the charity sector, the priorities and the challenges.

Skills and Abilities

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Attention to detail, ensuring accuracy and quality in written materials and their format.
- High levels of discretion, confidentiality and recognition of how and when to share information appropriately.
- Confident communicator and presenter, able to offer constructive challenge and influence.
- Strong project management and organisational skills.
- Good understanding of media needs and media relationships.
- Collaborative mindset, able to build strong internal and external working relationships.
- Self-motivated and self-sufficient, with a proactive approach to self-development and learning.

Other Requirements

- Able to drive and travel across the Yorkshire region (The charity has pool cars based at head office in Harrogate).
- Proof of eligibility to work in the UK
- Professional qualification check and DBS check (to be undertaken once the role is offered and accepted)

Values and Behaviours

- Supports the values of Yorkshire Cancer Research (see 'Our Values' below).
- Safeguarding is the responsibility of all employees who must remain aware and vigilant to potential safeguarding breaches and always report any suspicions or incidents following our internal reporting guidelines which will be shared during induction.

- Yorkshire Cancer Research operates a strict 'no smoking' policy throughout our premises, car parks and vehicles. Staff must not smoke whilst wearing charity branded clothing or whilst on duty. If the post holder chooses to, the charity will help and support them to stop completely or temporarily abstain from smoking during their working hours.

Yorkshire Cancer Research Values

Here for Yorkshire	United by the cause	Think big and bold	Make it happen
The needs of people in Yorkshire come first. They are at the heart of everything we do.	We collaborate with each other and with other organisations; united by the need to Give Yorkshire More Life to Live.	We deliver world-leading research and services. We dare to think differently.	We create and build solutions. We approach our work with positivity, energy and drive.

Our Behaviours

	Behaviours
Here for Yorkshire	The needs of people in Yorkshire come first Yorkshire Cancer Research exists to prevent diagnose and treat cancer in Yorkshire. The needs and interests of people in Yorkshire are at the forefront of what we do, how we think and how we act. People are the heart of everything we do When we develop new plans, projects and activities, we actively seek patient, supporter and/or customer input to inform our approach and decision-making.

United by the Cause	United by the need to Give Yorkshire More Life to Live We are transparent and open in what we do and what we say, uniting to support one another in achieving our shared goals. We collaborate with each other and other organisations We work to build relationships based on trust and collaboration. We seek to understand the needs and objectives of others to establish the common ground and agree how we can work together to benefit people in Yorkshire.
Think Big and Bold	We deliver world-leading research and services We evaluate worldwide research and we test and we learn in order to drive the greatest advances and impact in cancer research and services. We promote a culture of continual improvement and innovation. We dare to think differently to Give Yorkshire More Life To Live We are ambitious and not afraid to try something new or difficult when it comes to achieving our goals. Nor are we afraid to make difficult decisions when they are in the best interests of those we exist to serve; the people of Yorkshire.
Making it Happen	We create and build solutions We are focused on understanding the impact of our work and the difference it is making. We ensure we are always pushing forward the achievement of our charity's vision. We approach our work with positivity, energy and drive We see every challenge as an opportunity to provide a solution. When it comes to preventing, diagnosis and treating cancer, we deliver pioneering solutions To Give Yorkshire More Life To Live. We pursue our goals with enthusiasm and commitment; always asking 'Can I, and can we, do more?'

YORKSHIRE CANCER RESEARCH

Job Applicant Privacy Notice

Data controller: Yorkshire Cancer Research (the Charity)

As part of any recruitment process, the Charity collects and processes personal data relating to job applicants. The Charity is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses that data and to meeting its data protection obligations.

What information does the Charity collect?

The Charity collects a range of information about you. This includes but is not limited to:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number;
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience and employment history;
- information about your current level of remuneration, including benefit entitlements;
- whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process;
- information about your entitlement to work in the UK; and
- equal opportunities monitoring information, including information about your ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief.

The Charity collects this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be contained in application forms, CVs or resumes, obtained from your passport or other identity documents, or collected through interviews or other forms of assessment, including online tests.

The Charity will also collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, information from employment background check providers and information from criminal records checks. The Charity will seek information from third parties only once a job offer to you has been made and will inform you that it is doing so.

Data will be stored in a range of different places, including on your application record, in HR management systems and on other IT systems (including email).

Why does the Charity process personal data?

The Charity needs to process data to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract with you. It also needs to process your data to enter into a contract with you.

In some cases, the Charity needs to process data to ensure that it is complying with its legal obligations. For example, it is required to check a successful applicant's eligibility to work in the UK before employment starts.

The Charity has a legitimate interest in processing personal data during the recruitment process and for keeping records of the process. Processing data from job applicants allows the Charity to manage the recruitment process, assess and confirm a candidate's suitability for employment and decide to whom to offer a job. The Charity may also need to process data from job applicants to respond to and defend against legal claims.

Where the Charity relies on legitimate interests as a reason for processing data, it has considered whether or not those interests are overridden by the rights and freedoms of employees or workers and has concluded that they are not.

The Charity processes health information if it needs to make reasonable adjustments to the recruitment process for candidates who have a disability. This is to carry out its obligations and exercise specific rights in relation to employment.

Where the Charity processes other special categories of data, such as information about ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health or religion or belief, this is for equal opportunities monitoring purposes.

The Charity is obliged to seek information about criminal convictions and offences. Where the Charity seeks this information, it does so because it is necessary for it to carry out its obligations and exercise specific rights in relation to employment.

If your application is unsuccessful, the Charity will keep your personal data on file in case there are future employment opportunities for which you may be suited. The Charity will ask for your consent before it keeps your data for this purpose, and you are free to withdraw your consent at any time.

Who has access to data?

Your information will be shared internally for the purposes of the recruitment process. This includes members of the HR and senior executive teams, interviewers involved in the recruitment process, managers in the Charity's team with the vacancy and IT staff if access to the data is necessary for the performance of their roles.

The Charity will not share your data with third parties, unless your application for employment is successful and it makes you an offer of employment. The Charity will then share your data with former employers to obtain references for you, employment background check providers to obtain necessary background checks and the Disclosure and Barring Service to obtain necessary criminal records checks.

The Charity will not transfer your data outside the United Kingdom.

How does the Charity protect data?

The Charity takes the security of your data seriously. It has internal policies and controls in place to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by our employees in the proper performance of their duties. The Charity has a Data Protection Policy and an ICT Acceptable Use Policy which apply to all its employees.

For how long does the Charity keep data?

If your application for employment is unsuccessful, the Charity will hold your data on file for 6 months after the end of the relevant recruitment process. If you agree to allow the organisation to keep your personal data on file, the Charity will hold your data on file for a further period of 6 months for consideration for future employment opportunities. At the end of that period or once you withdraw your consent, your data is deleted or destroyed.

If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personnel file and retained during your employment. The periods for which your data will be held will be provided to you in a new employee privacy statement.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- require the Charity to change incorrect or incomplete data;
- require the Charity to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing;
- object to the processing of your data where the Charity is relying on its legitimate interests as the legal ground for processing; and
- ask the Charity to stop processing data for a period if data is inaccurate or there is a dispute about whether or not your interests override the Charity's legitimate grounds for processing data.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact the Charity's Company Secretary, Joanne Mornin (joanne.mornin@ycr.org.uk)

You can make a subject access request by contacting the Company Secretary.

If you believe that the Charity has not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Information Commissioner.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide data to the Charity during the recruitment process. However, if you do not provide the information, the Charity may not be able to process your application properly or at all.

Edition date: June 2023