

Addendum for Early Years and Children's Practitioner (Project Worker 1)

Rugby Children and Family Centres

Barnardo's are commissioned to deliver the services in Children and Family Centres in Warwickshire in partnership with a wide variety of agencies offering activities to children, young people and parents/carers. We support children, young people and their families to enable them to thrive, achieve, develop, and to build a resilience to cope with life.

Rugby Children and Family Centres are recruiting for an Early Years and Children's Practitioner to join the team of Early Years and Children's workers who deliver a range of groups including, Toddler Time, Baby Time, Baby Massage, Baby Signing and Chatter Matters, Family Time and After school clubs and Saturday activities.

The Early Years Practitioner will have responsibility for delivering some of the activities in our 3 centres and at our outreach sites in Rugby, working independently or alongside the team of staff, volunteers and students.

This post requires:

- a good knowledge and understanding of the EYFS, and child development, particularly with regard to speech and language and SEND, and planning activities with these as a focus.
- good organisational skills
- experience of, and confidence in lone-working to deliver groups/activities to families or just children.
- an excellent understanding of child protection and safeguarding
- excellent communication skills and knowledge of support services for families in the local area.
- Good IT skills – including use of MS Office applications.
- Experience of working with the 5-19 yr age groups and up to 25yrs for SEND is advantageous
- travel across the locality – Rugby Borough including outlying villages. Therefore access to your own transport is essential.

This post is part time, 19.5hrs per week over 3 days (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday) all year round. There is a requirement to work one Saturday morning per month and hours are reclaimed as TOIL. The salary is £26,003 (FTE) £13,704.28 (19.5hrs)
