

Senior Partnerships Fundraiser

Full-time, Salary £32,478 - £36,639

Care. Compassion. Community.

Do you get your energy from forging personal relationships with charity supporters? Are you looking to use your skills and experience for good? Come and join the Fundraising Team at The Prince of Wales Hospice in West Yorkshire, where no two days are the same!

We are looking for a tenacious fundraiser to join our Partnerships Team who already raise over £350,000 pa for local hospice care. With an ambitious plan to extend our reach to more people, we need to increase this fundraising further.

Within a broader fundraising team, you and the two Community Partnerships Fundraiser will be responsible for the development, planning and delivery of a programme of fundraising campaigns and products. These will appeal to a wide range of individuals, community organisations and businesses. Playing a key role in everything from preparing budgets and targets, to liaising about marketing materials you will ensure campaigns and events run smoothly and you will provide impeccable stewardship for supporters.

Our ideal applicant is a dynamic thinker with an enthusiastic personality and self-motivated to achieve stretching targets. You will be flexible, resilient and a strong team player. Your excellent interpersonal skills and strong organisational skills mean you can negotiate and juggle competing demands. With at least three years of fundraising, account management or sales experience, a full driving licence and access to a vehicle, you will work in partnership with our existing portfolio of Hospice Heroes and bring new ones on board for the long term.
