ROLE OF SOCIAL MEDIA OFFICER

As Social Media Officer you'll be managing and boosting Church Army's presence on platforms like Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, X, and more. You'll create, curate and commission engaging content, manage schedules, and use analytics to refine strategies, aiming to build a supportive and vibrant online community. The Social Media Officer will build and maintain a strong, positive online community that reflects Church Army's values and supports its mission. You'll operate within a team focused on amplifying Church Army's impact through digital platforms, aligning with its Christian values and outreach goals.

This role will need to effectively communicate our key messages and the heart behind what we do. You will therefore need to be able to understand how our values shape our behaviours, the breath and impact of our work, and our key audiences to deliver material that aligns with and demonstrates this.

As an integral part of the Digital Team, you will work closely with the Digital Project Manager, the Data Analyst and Paid Media agencies as well as the Brand and Fundraising Teams. You'll be joining a creative and enthusiastic team who are passionate about communicating the work of Church Army.

We are looking for someone who:

- Loves to engage: You have strong skills in writing social media copy, content creation, and community management.
- Is data-driven: You're proficient in analysing engagement data and using insights to optimise strategies.
- Is a team player: You thrive in collaborative environments and are ready to work across departments to achieve collective goals.
- Will embody our values: You should resonate with and represent Church Army's Christian values both professionally and personally.

This role is part of a wider change in the structure of the Communications Team as we work to ensure that the team is equipped for the future work of Church Army so that we can widen our reach, share more about the work & witness of Church Army, and support the demands upon our Fundraising Team as we see a step-change in our work.

Andrew Horton, Head of Communications and Digital Engagement

- Understanding of digital marketing principles and how social media fits into broader marketing strategies.
- Awareness of social media trends and their implications for engagement and content strategy.

Experience

- Experience in managing social media accounts for an organisation or brand.
- Experience in creating and executing a content calendar.
- Prior involvement in community management and crisis communication on social media platforms.

Skills

- Strong writing and content creation skills, able to produce compelling and high-quality posts.
- Proficient in data analysis with the ability to use insights to drive strategy.
- Competence in using social media management and analytics tools.

Attributes

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills to engage effectively with a diverse online community.
- Ability to work collaboratively within a team and across different departments.
- Strong organisational skills with the ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously.

Desirable:

Knowledge and Understanding

- Familiarity with the specific challenges and opportunities in using social media for non-profit or Christian organisations.
- Understanding of the latest advancements in social media technology and tools.

Experience

- Experience working with content producers, such as video editors and graphic designers, to create multimedia social media content.
- Previous experience in a non-profit or faith-based organisation is an asset.

Skills

- Advanced skills in graphic design or video production are highly desirable.
- Capability to provide training or guidance to other team members on social media best practices.

Attributes

- Creative thinker with the ability to innovate and adapt to changing social media landscapes.
- A passion for the mission and values of the Church Army, with a commitment to fostering a positive online community that reflects these values.

WHAT MAKES US CHURCH ARMY

Our Vision

For everyone everywhere to encounter God's love and be empowered to transform their communities through faith shared in words and action.

See our We Are Church Army video.

Our Values

Everything we do is underpinned by our GRACEUP values:

Generous - We believe God is generous and we want to model that generosity to others.

Risk-taking - We have a long heritage as a pioneering movement, taking calculated risks and giving our staff permission to try new things.

Accountable - We are accountable to God and others, and we want to be reliable and responsible to high professional standards.

Collaborative - We are committed to partnering with others who share our values; we believe collaboration enhances the potential and outcomes of our work.

Expectant - We are hopeful, expecting God to do new things through our frontline work and the Church Army community.

Unconditional - We believe God loves everyone and every person is significant in His eyes. We serve anyone regardless of their age, gender, race, sexuality, faith, ability, status or circumstances.

Prayerful - We listen to God through prayer, and we want to be obedient to Him. We want to be like Jesus in all we do.

Working with Us

We aspire to see our teams reflect the communities they serve, and to have a diversity of people and views reflected across our organisation. We are a Christian charity working with people of all faiths and none. We ask that our team, where being a Christian is not a requirement, to respect and be sympathetic to our history, work, vision and values.

We welcome and encourage job applications from people of all backgrounds. We particularly welcome applications from candidates from black and ethnic minority backgrounds. We are an equal opportunities employer and we do not discriminate on the basis of any characteristic, including those protected by the Equality Act.

Church Army staff have access to a wide range of benefits, and you can find some of these listed on our website below our vacancies.
