

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role

Campaign Volunteer

Volunteer Manager

Grassroots Campaign Coordinator

Where you will be based

Home

Why we want you

We need people willing to speak up for animals! Join us for in-person events and take actions from home in this flexible role.

By joining our community, you will gain fantastic transferable campaign experience, meet like-minded people, and most importantly for all, use your spare time to reduce the suffering of animals on factory farms.

What you will be doing

- Attending in-person events (including protests, outreach & more, expenses paid)
- Taking actions from home to support campaigns (writing letters, emails and social media actions)
- Joining us for online training webinars (optional)

The skills you need

- Proactively take actions at a time that works for you, getting involved when you can
- Alignment with our mission and values, sharing our vision of pragmatic activism
- The ability to work as part of a team and collaborate with other volunteers and staff
- A commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion

What's in it for you

- Gain more confidence & transferable skills in animal activism
- Use your spare time to drive change for animals suffering on factory farms
- Gain experience in the charity sector
- Access to tailored support, training and guidance
- You'll be part of our UK-wide network of animal changemakers
- Build new connections with like-minded people
- Step out your comfort zone and try new things in a safe space
- Develop and take on new challenges and roles if desired

Disclaimer

All relevant training and support given, no prior experience required.

You must fully complete the onboarding training to join our team. All relevant expenses will be reimbursed. You must be 18 years or older to volunteer with us. We look forward to hearing from you!

The Humane League UK is committed to building a diverse, equitable and inclusive team. We are an equal opportunities organisation and welcome volunteer applications from all people, regardless of their race, sex, age, religion, disability, neurodiversity, orientation, gender identity or expression.

We particularly encourage those currently under-represented in the animal movement to join our team - individuals who are Black, Indigenous or People of the Global Majority, a person who is differently abled, and people who are LGBTQIA+.

If you prefer to apply in another way, or you have alternative requirements you'd like to discuss, don't hesitate to contact us:
volunteeruk@thehumaneleague.org.uk