

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role	Trustee
Volunteer Manager	Admin
Where you will be based	Hospice

Why we want you

To support our vision, we have a Board of Trustees with a variety of skills reflecting the range and scope of our activity.

The candidate should have a personal or professional understanding of palliative and end of life care and that death is part of life, together with an understanding and/or experience of the role of a Trustee.

What you will be doing

- As a Trustee, you will play a vital role in ensuring our charity fulfils its purpose for the public benefit.
- You will help safeguard the good name and values of Dorothy House, ensuring effective administration and responsible management of resources.
- Your strategic input will be crucial in guiding the organisation's direction, setting policies, defining goals, and evaluating performance.
- Additionally, you will assist in appointing and monitoring the Chief Executive's performance.

The skills you need

- A commitment to palliative and end of life care
- An understanding and acceptance of the legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities of trusteeship
- A commitment to extending their knowledge and understanding of the work carried out by Dorothy House
- A willingness to devote the necessary time and effort
- Strategic vision
- An ability to work effectively as a member of a team

What's in it for you

- Help a local charity and give something back
- Induction to Dorothy House provided
- Out of pocket expenses can be reimbursed
