Why we want you

Whether you're cheering on runners from the sidelines, helping to run a tombola or collecting vital funds – there’s a role for everyone to play.

As a Fundraising Event Support Volunteer, you’ll support a team of Fundraisers to deliver amazing, unforgettable events.

You’ll be supporting with a range of activities, helping each event to run smoothly and helping to raise vital funds for St Barnabas, Chestnut Tree House and Martlets. This could include welcoming participants, marshalling, selling raffle tickets, bucket collecting, handing out refreshments or being part of cheer squads.

The role is flexible, and you can choose times that work for you. No experience is necessary, just bring your energy and enthusiasm to help make each event special.

What you will be doing

- Welcoming participants and spectators
- Supporting the event manager or lead fundraiser to set-up and pack down
- Handing out refreshments, medals or other event items
- Being part of our Cheer Squad
- Marshalling
- Collecting money (bucket collections)

The skills you need

- Reliability and good time keeping
- Enthusiasm and energy
- Enjoy being part of a team
- Being able to follow instruction

What's in it for you

- Join exciting events that bring people together to support hospice care across your community
- Meet new people and be part of a friendly and supportive team
- Be proud of the impact you're making
- Gain experience of working with the public

- Help create unforgettable experiences
