

VOLUNTEER ROLE DESCRIPTION

Role Title	Workshop Designer
Organisation Team	Events and Workshops Team
Project/Programme Description	Newington Green Alliance is a UK registered charity committed to nurturing compassionate connections and understanding in order to help people transcend the ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic divides that prevent community bonds. Compassionate connections are vital in fostering a genuinely inclusive and mutually beneficial community. Research confirms the profound impact of strengthening community ties, enhancing mental well-being, happiness, education, economic prosperity, and reducing isolation and crime. NGA is focused primarily in the London boroughs of Hackney and Islington. The Workshop Design Volunteer will help to design and plan specialised workshops designed to promote compassion and understanding across differences as part of building diverse, supportive and sustaining community.
Team Profile (these are the things that the team needs to be able to do to be effective; not every team member needs to be able to do every part of this)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Deliver engaging and interactive workshops that help to build compassion and understanding among participants.● Facilitate discussions and activities that promote understanding, compassion, and community building.● Adapt workshop delivery to suit different audiences and settings.● Gather, analyse, and respond to participant feedback to improve future offerings.● Work collaboratively to ensure the smooth execution of all workshops.● Attract participants to workshops and other events.● Maintain supportive and productive relations with and between participants of NGA workshops and events.
Personal Requirements & Skills Profile (these are the things that volunteers should have)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Experience in designing educational or community-focused workshops or appropriate transferable skills.● Creativity in developing engaging and interactive workshop content.● Ability to tailor workshops to diverse audiences and community needs.● Strong organisational and planning skills.● Excellent written and verbal communication skills.● Passion for community building and social inclusion.● Understanding of group dynamics

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ability to access the boroughs of Islington and Hackney for events several times per month.
Commitment & Responsibilities	Time Commitment: Volunteers must commit to at least six months with NGA, averaging 2-3 hours per week for Events and Workshops Team tasks. Remote Work: Volunteers will primarily work remotely and must have regular access to a stable internet connection. Online Meetings: Volunteers will participate in regular online meetings to plan, share teamwork, and provide updates on completed tasks.