Volunteer Manager	Volunteer Manager
Where you will be based	Community

Why we want you

Can you help young people build essential life skills?

Community Education delivers free confidence-building workshops across the UK, and we want you to help us enable and equip communities to become more resilient.

You will empower young people in your community by delivering workshops on a range of humanitarian topics including First Aid and Wellbeing.

What you will be doing

- Deliver a range of interactive workshops to young people in schools and youth settings.
- Promote our Community Education workshops within your community.

The skills you need

- Confidence to independently deliver workshops to a group of young people.
- Ability to communicate effectively with our partner organisations and young people.
- Responsible, organised, and reliable
- Passionate about exploring humanitarian issues and values.
- Able to travel to and lead a workshop each week.
- Recognise the value of equality, diversity, and inclusion in the work that we do.
- IT literate, ideally with access to own IT equipment.

What's in it for you

- The opportunity to make a difference to the lives of young people in your community.
- The opportunity to develop your existing skills, whilst gaining new skills and experience within the voluntary sector.
- You will be part of a supportive and inclusive team.
- Training provided with ongoing personal development
- Reimbursement of reasonable out of pocket expenses.
- An opportunity to be part of the world's largest humanitarian organisation and the knowledge that you are making a difference to people's lives.
